

Photos from the Kolob Canyons - Kolob Arch via La Verkin Creek Trail, Oct 24-25

New Promise Hikers completed this challenging trail by going from the Lee's Pass Trailhead down into the La Verkin Canyon area (where the Kolob Arch is) on Friday, Oct 24, overnighting, and then returning Saturday, Oct 25. What a gorgeous hike, and the Fall colors were beginning to show! The weather was also wonderful both days, reaching highs in the 70's each day. As we expected, Kolob Arch was spectacular... Enjoy the photos!
