

F & P Sounds

Minimal Pairs

- | | | |
|------------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Fan-Pan | 14. Faint-Paint | 27. Gaff-Gap |
| 2. Far-Par | 15. Face-Pace | 28. Loaf-Lope |
| 3. Fit-Pit | 16. Flee-Plea | 29. Loft-Lopped |
| 4. Fine-Pine | 17. Beef-Beep | 30. Reef-Reap |
| 5. Fail-Pale | 18. Coffee-Copy | 31. Croft-Cropped |
| 6. Feel-Peel | 19. Cuff-Cup | 32. Grift-Gripped |
| 7. Flock-Block | 20. Off-Op | 33. Hoof-Hoop |
| 8. Fool-Pool | 21. Cough-Cop | 34. Puff-Pup |
| 9. Fate-Pate | 22. Half-Harp | 35. Riff-Rip |
| 10. Fast-Past | 23. Leaf-Leap | 36. Sift-Sipped |
| 11. Fleas-Please | 24. Shift-Shipped | 37. Sniff-Snip |
| 12. Fork-Pork | 25. Tiff-Tip | 38. Whiff-Whip |
| 13. Ferry-Perry | 26. Drift-Dripped | |

Short Sentences

1. The fan cooled the pan while the fork poked the pork.
2. The fine print was pale against the face of the pace.
3. The fit was perfect, unlike the cuff that was too tight.
4. Perry admired the leaf as the ferry left the reef.
5. Face the pain and pace yourself to avoid a faint.
6. Cough near the cop and you might hear the cropped edges.
7. The fool made a plea while dropping beef in the pool.
8. Sift the coffee and find the missing copy.
9. The fast runner passed the tiff at the tip of the race.
10. The whiff of food was strong, like the whip cracking.
11. The pale beef on the fork was next to the puff.
12. Sniff the beef and see the snip in the paper.
13. Fork your pork while dealing with the drift of snow.
14. The faint sound of a puff followed the cop and hoof.
15. The half of the loaf on the loft was near the harp.
16. The pale paint made the face look off at the pace.
17. Fleece the beef or you'll end up with a bland cup.
18. Drift through the puff and find the pup.
19. Cough while seeing the cropped edges and shift quickly.
20. The leaf fell, and the cuff snagged on the hoop.

Longer Text...

1. The fan blew the fleece across the pan, while the fork was placed next to the pork.
2. To avoid a fail, ensure you have the fine print read before signing the pale contract.
3. If you fit the old cuff correctly, you'll be able to handle the new pit without any trouble.
4. The ferry left the reef as soon as it was clear, while Perry admired the leaf that fell onto his book.
5. Face the challenge with confidence, but remember to pace yourself or you might faint before you finish the paint job.
6. The cough you heard was from the cop, who was trying to catch the cropped thief sneaking through the gaff.
7. The fool dropped his beef into the pool, and then he made a plea to his friend for help.
8. We need to sift through the coffee grounds to find the missing copy of the report.
9. The fast runner quickly got past the tiff between the two players over the tip of the ball.
10. The whiff of fresh bread made me forget about the whip I was planning to use for the dessert.
11. He managed to fleece the store without getting caught, even though his cuff was caught in the pup's leash.
12. You can sniff the fresh beef as it cooks, while I make a snip in the new recipe.
13. The fork was stuck in the drift of snow, while the pork was sizzling in the oven next to the pale flames.
14. The faint echo of the puff was heard as the cop approached, while the hoof of the horse echoed in the distance.
15. The half of the loaf was left on the loft, while the harp played softly in the background of the lope.
16. The pale light made the face of the statue seem like it was painted, but the pace was too slow to notice the change.
17. Fleece the beef with herbs before cooking, or you'll end up with a bland cup of broth.
18. If you drift through the puff of smoke, you might miss the pup playing in the background.
19. The cough and the cropped edges of the paper were both distractions during the shift to the new pate recipe.

20. As the leaf fell, the cuff of his shirt snagged on the puff of air coming from the hoop nearby.