

Hey there <given name>

Do you know what strikes me when I notice your page/channel/Instagram?

The fact that you don't connect with your audience in the correct way.

Thanks for reading this far....Now I have your attention.

Allow me to introduce myself,

I like to look at businesses such as yourself and look into what you really want more of .

More engagement,more sales or more eyeballs on what you're offering.

At the end of the day CASH is what makes a difference .

I can see your company adds value to the world so lets convert that into ££££

<compliment>

The fact that within your niche ,the detail you provide is not in others engagement and that's where your superpower could lie.

I have read between the lines and can honestly say you should be making more than you are currently lets upgrade your profits.

I have a free value piece I want to share with you called the waka waka method of promoting your product.

I want to send it over to you ASAP just let me know with a yes for and immediate upgrade in your sales method

Waka Waka !!

Regards Richard
