

Original song by Jin
English adaptation by JubyPhobic

Tragedy ridden, never fit in, and dead now
A life gone so quickly, would it knock at the door?
Hiding a scowl, the little master watches,
"Oh, what an ugly tale..."
Crawling and sprawling down the body and throat
Melting away a decaying and beaten down heart
Drink in and sink in every bit of your life
I'm eating at your eyes

Hey, it's all that you have wanted and more
And then you stared a haunting glare into my core
A tragic 「bleeding heart」 before me
And I'm starving

You're in the belly of the beast
Love and your ego, rest in peace
Everything left of you
Will soon be reborn anew
Like a monster, I know I am
Loving it, I can't deny it
Crying to god you scream out, "why?"
"Stop this already!", you just whine
Will you suck it up now?
This fate cannot be unwound
Succeeding, succeeding, succeeding
You'll be the heir to my crown

Myth, dreams, and tragedy, the passage of time, now
They fall so in love and watch it crumbling down
Softly he's snickering, the smiling snake -
"How stupid can they be?"
Ah, t-t-tell me why I can't get enough
Gotta taste it, that shaking heart, it never gives up
Gripping to what remains of miserable life
Embedded in your mind

Right, it's living in you, crawling inside
The curse of seeing through everyone else's eyes
But in this real-life dark fantasy

You'll be the queen

Cheers to the years of life you've made
Love, bitter ego, kneel and pray
Hazy days all around, future nowhere to be found
Back to page one where this story
Started really getting gorey
"Please, give it back!", you screech and scream
"Stop this already!" quite the plea
Oh, you think that I care?
Well, life is simply unfair
Welcome to horrible, pitiful, fictional, reality

Ah, what a sorry way to live
Try, try again, you just resist
Wanna turn back the page?
Reset the actors on stage?
Push me away as you're heaving
Howling even louder, screaming
Oh, what an ugly way to live!
Don't ever ask me why again
'Cause you're bleeding with greed
You're doing time for your crime
Believing miracles empty
Breaking into pieces plenty
Done with it all, "No, I don't care..."
Helpless and crying, you sit there
And that's all there's to say,
The end is fading away
Day after, day after,
Kids of tomorrow
Day after,
Day after,
Going
Day after
Day after,
Day after,
Laugh in the haze
