MYSTERIOUS ACCIDENT AT CAMP

Counselor Ginger of IGGPPCamp was found yesterday afternoon on the lakeshore of the IGGPPCamp grounds. Witnesses say that the counselor appeared to have accidentally drowned, though investigators say there are "suspicious circumstances" and are investigating it fully. Ginger's spouse, Basil, was taken into custody for questioning, and while there is no further information on any potential involvement at this time, he appears to be the prime suspect. Other IGGPPCamp staff were questioned as to the last time they spoke with Counselor Ginger. "I saw her after dinner two nights ago," Nurse Buffalo told us. The camp nurse said she hadn't seen the counselor since.

NOT THE FIRST INCIDENT AT CAMP

This is the second strange occurrence at camp in the last two months, but staff assures...

A message from the IGGPPCamp Directors...

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Counselor Ginger*. Ginger has been a member of the IGGPPC for many years and served as a first time Counselor for Troop Schuyler at this year's summer camp. A memorial wake will be held in Ginger's honor on Sunday, October 28th. We invite you to join us at 5:00PM UTC as we share memories and celebrate the life of our departed friend. Ginger's obituary may be found here:
