- Supervised Independent Living

    - Supervised Independent Living (SIL) is a type of voluntary Extended Foster Care placement where young adults can live on their own under a supervised independent living setting. A young adult in SIL still receives case management and support services provided by a DFPS contracted provider to help them become independent and self-sufficient. They are not supervised 24 hours a day by an adult and have increased responsibilities.
- Preparation for Adult Living Program
    - The Preparation for Adult Living (PAL) program was implemented to ensure older youth in foster care are prepared for their departure from the Texas Department of Family Protective Services care. PAL strives to provide youth with skills and resources they will need to be healthy, productive adults who will be able to face the challenges of adulthood and independence. Students who successfully complete PAL classes may be eligible for a wide range of Benefits for Youth Transitioning from Foster Care to Adulthood, including tuition and fee waivers to institutions of higher education in Texas. Student may contact their assigned Regional PAL Coordinator to access these benefits.
