Reports

C. McCloud (grants) –

- A. Legion Hall Grant – County Commissioners gave permission to move forward. SHF contract should be here shortly. Tax credits are enough to provide the match of $80,000. The grants are administered through KCEDF but the official applicant is the Legion. McCloud is working on other grants (with VA) in case of rising costs.
- B. McCloud submitted a grant to the Colorado Tourism Office for Reimagine Destination on 6/7/22. This is a tourism grant for the area.
- C. SHF emergency grant for KA Hall and the Haswell School/Senior Citizens – McCloud submitted CDOT grant on Friday for the sidewalk at the KA Hall and cement work around the Haswell School.
- D. A CDOT grant was awarded to the Town of Eads for sidewalks in front of Crow-Luther and the new salon.

Unfinished Business

- E. Wind Towers – Xcel going out for RFPs for wind and solar.
- F. Commission member – Richards will talk to Gerald Deines to see if he is interested in joining the commission.

New Business

- G. Preservation Plan – We could apply for CLG grant for a plan. There is no match. Richards made a motion seconded by Campbell to work on this grant. Passed. Courkamp will look into the process.
