

Hello BC Car Wraps,

I stumbled across your Instagram and couldn't help but notice your impressive Jeep Rubicon post - a fantastic split image that's sure to attract customers!

I noticed that you currently don't have a way of attracting customers through an online funnel. This is causing your business to miss out on a lot of potential new clients.

I am offering to rewrite your whole home page on the website and add some compelling text to your Instagram bio, which will undoubtedly attract a lot of customers and make them feel much more secure about getting your services.

I'd like to offer you a complete idea for free so you can see my work and understand the benefits it brings.

If your answer to my proposal is yes, then I will get to work asap, and I will get back to you with my work within 48 hours. However, if your answer is no, I completely understand, and I regret that you might miss out on the significant benefits this proposal offers.

Best regards,
Luka
