Language Arts Vocabulary

1.Convert: (verb) when you convert something, you change it from one thing into another

2. Electricity: (noun) electricity is a form of energy that can produce light, heat, and power

3. Generate: (verb) to generate something is to make it from other materials

4. Power: (noun) is the ability or strength to do something

5. Renewable: (adjective) something is renewable when you can’t use up all of it

6. Scarce: (adjective) something is scarce if there is not a lot of it

7. Available: (adjective) when something is available, it is ready to take

8. Conservation: (noun) conservation means saving or protecting something

9. Current: (adjective) when something is current, it is happening now

10. Flow: (verb) to flow is to move freely

11. Resource: (noun) a resource is something that people need