

Knowledge Insight Logic and Rationality

What is Truth?

Date: 6/15/2024

Time: 7:00 pm

Organizer: Joshua Sheppard

Agenda:

Part 1

Welcome and Introductions (15 minutes)

- Opening remarks by the organizer.
- Brief introduction of the group's purpose and goals.
- Attendee introductions (name, pronouns, and something about yourself [background, passions, what brought them to the group, etc]).

Part 2

Overview of Meeting Agenda (2 minutes or less)

- Presentation of the discussion topics for the meeting.

Part 3

Discussion Topic 1: What does truth mean to you and why? (30 minutes or less)

- Opening thoughts from the moderator.
- Open floor for others to share their thoughts.

Bonus Question

- Can you give an example of moments in your life when discovering the truth had a significant impact.

Break : 10 minutes

Part 4

Discussion Topic 2: How can collaboration help in regards to finding truth? (30 minutes or less)

- Exploration of the role of collaboration in the pursuit of truth.
- Group brainstorming session:
 - Examples of successful collaborations that led to discovering truth.
 - How can this group foster effective collaboration?
 - Ideas for projects or activities that promote collective truth-seeking.

Part 5

Summary and Next Steps (10 minutes or less)

- Recap of key points discussed.
- Open floor for final thoughts and reflections.

Part 6

Closing Remarks & Connections (5 minutes or less)