About John:
Born in Edmonton, John is from an Air Force family. He lived in Winnipeg and France before moving back to Ottawa for high school and then after that University in Waterloo. He also studied and taught at UOttawa. John was a mathematician and economist with the government and then a management consultant for many years in Ottawa and the Caribbean. Joanne and John moved to Manotick in 2014. They have four grown kids and seven grandchildren. John's long-time hobby is playing bass guitar and singing in a folk/rock/country cover band called “Red Tape”.

About John in Kiwanis:
In our first few weeks, we have sold Christmas trees and fruitcakes!
