

The Election of Mokina

The city of Mokina's leader, Lady Lyonesse, has died mysteriously and left them without leadership. With the capital Ceidil on the move to occupy nearby towns they find themselves in a vulnerable position. A nearby hamlet, Legorga, has offered their support with resources. In return they ask that they become sister cities and that a leader gets democratically within the next day. So without further ado, meet our candidates.

Abebe Mostano

Stats:

Age: 28

Job: Farmer

Species: Calashite Human

Hometown: Capras

Tagline: Mokina, Legorga. I love them both.

Bio:

Abebe is the daughter of Sandar, one of the original members of the town of Mokina after they fled Ceidil. She grew up doing lots of hard work for the village of Mokina. In her 20's she ran a hunting lodge with her brother Abebi, but recently left it aside to start a farm in the new township of Legorga.

Statement:

I will work tirelessly for the future of both of these cities. I see one thing in our way, the occupations of Ceidil. As someone from many homes I know how to make connections. I will lead us to a unification of not just two cities, but all that oppose Ceidil. A vote for Abebe is a vote for unity!

Asteroid Igneous

Stats:

Age: 22

Job: Druid/Nursery Worker

Species: Copper Dragonborn

Hometown: The Acacian Coast

Tagline: From the forest our wisdom comes, our strength from ourselves.

Bio:

As many druids stories often go, Asteroid spent most of her life walking in untamed lands and getting to know exotic plants and animals. She then took up for a time with some adventurers and fought against Ceidil and their occupations. She now resides in Legorga, running a Greenhouse that is overflowing with species from all around Fuonos.

Statement:

I believe in the strength of nature and the will of the world. I do not believe that tyrants with access to large militias should walk unchecked through the lands taking whatever they perceive to be theirs. My mayorship would start with the complete rejection of the Ceidilian occupation, in whatever form the people of Mokina deem best. The rest of my time as your mayor would be spent invigorating the natural resources that surround and inhabit the lands of Mokina.

Hoplon of the Helm

Stats:

Age: 85

Job: Cleric, Church of Helm

Species: Half Elf

Hometown: Ceidil

Tagline: Stand Tall

Bio: Hoplon is a cleric in service of the god Helm. Recently charged with the expansion of Helm's reach by the leading paladin of his church in Ceidil, Hoplon made his way to Legorga. Finding the town filled with ribble rabble, he decided that this would more than suffice as a place to sway hearts and change lives. Many adventures later Hoplon finds himself again at a point of expansion in the name of Helm and would like to move to Mokina to spread Helm's tenets of strength and unity in numbers and honour.

Statement:

With Ceidil walking rampant through the plains of Fuonos it's never been more obvious that we need strength. Strength that we have in the Church of Helm and are freely willing to share. Strong walls will be built for Mokina. Knights will guard you and train your people to defend themselves. Vote not for me Hoplon, but for Helm.

Margle Yash

Stats:

Age: 34

Job: Nurse

Species: Calashite Human

Hometown: Ceidil

Tagline: I know Mokina and I know you. Let me do what is right for us all.

Bio:

Margle Yash would describe herself as a nurse first, mother second, a wife third and a citizen of Fuonos fourth. Her story is one of quiet contemplation of the world that surrounds her. She was one of the first to take Lady Lyonesse's invitation to start a new township and because of her medical knowledge was able to provide a place in which people could stay. Some would say she was instrumental to Mokina's beginnings.

Statement:

I love Mokina, with all my heart. I saw as Mokina was just an empty plain, and alongside Lady Lyonesse. I helped raise it from the ground. It is because of this that I believe I would be perfect as your Mayor. This isn't just a job for me, but a lifestyle, a calling, a dream. I know Lady Lyonesse's vision and I can help bring it even more to life. With me as your mayor, the dreams of self sufficiency, safety from monarchical rule and goodness will live on.

Twosidore Black

Stats:

Age:35

Job: 'Stidgeon (Pot) Grower'

Species: Undisclosed, looks like a human but

Hometown: Ceidil

Bio:

Part fumumancer, part greenthumb, full time chiller. Twosidore moved to Legorga from the big city to take a load off and so his 18 cats would grow up in a safe neighbourhood. He grows all manner of smokeables and usually has a mix going. Recently he started studying magic and helped defeat an enormous red crocodile on a school excursion. When asked about it later he said "It was pretty big dudes".

Tagline: A vote for Twosidore is two votes for You-sidore

Statement:

Hi I'm Twosidore. I'm just a regular old dude. I love my house full of cats and stidgeon varietals. My favourite to smoke is the midnight dream splash. My ideas for the township of Mokina would essentially just be to make the whole place a lot chiller. Yknow there's so much tension in Fuonos right now, we just need to get a bunch of wicker chairs and smoke Mokina dry. Then maybe after we all come down we can really talk about all this yknow and figure out how to make it all so much more chill.
