Time for a main attraction
You must know the story
Let [the story]start the reaction
It's time to play the old game
Some bots like
To being damaged
Some bots are bore
Some are gold

I'm not punishing here
I only want to surprise [you]
You don't need to wonder
How would you like to call that
There was a time
In fact not so long ago
I was like you
Do you know my call?

Here, later there
You'll find me
I'll find you
I'll be checking on you
You won't even notice
I like to watch for the first time how a freshman
Plays with us until he's got enough
I wanna play differently
(you like it? Let me know!)
You'll be here for the night
You gotta give something in return

Look at the Cam 2B

The surprise awaits you

IT'S ME

You could say that I'm drilling into you

To be honest – you're a nice guy

Time for a main attraction

You must know the story

Let [the story]start the reaction

It's time to play the old game

Some bots like

To being damaged

Some bots are bore

Some are gold

You're doing great

Having such a wary cameras

You're warming up my circuits

When I hear new moans

But don't get me wrong

You have a bravery of a lion

[while] eye to eye with animals

Immersed with game

End of the learning

I'm crossing my fingers

Time to get ready for a show

Now you know how and what

Only you, who else?

Someone is needed to take over the debts

Opportunity-Gold got in your hands and

You'll be able to work for the end of days

Have it with pride
And always laugh
You'll forever be with us like blood brothers

You could say that it's some kind of spell
To be honest, it's not even a nightmare
