VICTOR PUBLIC LIBRARY EVENTS:

Friday, September 13-Sunday, September 15 - Book Sale! The library will be hosting a fall book sale outside the main entrance to the building. Books sales will consist of a free will donation and all funds will support children's programming. Hours are: Friday 9-6, Saturday, 9-1 and Sunday 10-2. Help us move our inventory!

Saturday, September 14 at 10am - Grandparents Day! Children are invited to bring their grandparents or a special person in their life to the library that morning for snacks, a story and a craft. All ages are welcome.

Wednesday, September 25 from 2:30-4:00 - Crafternoon! Elementary aged youth are welcome to join us at the library for an afternoon of crafting fun. A Walking School Bus is available for any child wishing to have an escort from the gym lobby to the library. If you'd like your child to use this service, you can send a note to school for your child's teacher stating that they will be picked up in the gym lobby by a member of the Hawkins family, who will then escort them to the library. Instructions for the library staff regarding 4pm pick-up or permission to walk home is also appreciated. Feel free to text Crystal at 319-310-8312 with those instructions.

Friday, September 27 at 6:30 - Family Movie Night. We are showing IF (Imaginary Friend) this month. Free popcorn. Bring a clear drink and whatever you need to feel comfortable (blankets, pillows, etc.).

*The VPL will also be celebrating Classical Music Month by playing music in the library every weekend. Stop in for a soothing mood while looking for materials! Finally, we are hosting a contest to name Crystal's Rooster in celebration of National Chicken Month. Stop by the library to submit an idea for his name!

What day is it? It's Find Your Inner Nerd Day, National Cuban Sandwich Day, National Sponge Cake Day, National Ride the Wind Day. Will you celebrate any of these?

School bells are ringing loud and clear; vacation's over, school is here.
