What's this about?

Simple: it's essentially a Secret Santa art swap dedicated to White Day. White Day is celebrated, mostly in the East, as a way for men to give back to their giftees from Valentine's day.

Valentine's Day in countries which observe White Day is typically observed by girls and women presenting chocolate gifts (either store-bought or handmade), usually to boys or men, as an expression of love, courtesy, or social obligation.

On White Day, the reverse happens: men who received a honmei-choco (本命チョコ, 'chocolate of love') or giri-choco (義理チョコ, 'courtesy chocolate') on Valentine's Day are expected to return the favor by giving gifts.

You've showered them with your feelings in these past months, how about they return the favor this time! Their love will be gifted in the form of arts and literature, whichever you desire!

So what do we do?

Linked above is a form you can fill in to specify your prompts/requests for your White Day artist, as well as rules and guidelines to follow when gifting.

Are fan characters/OCs allowed in our requests?

Absolutely! The general theme of this exchange is returning the love to you! You or your character deserve a part in this!

Do we have to ask for the Demon brothers?

Not at all! If your heart desires an angel, another demon, or a ~~Solomon~~ human, follow that path!

Can the couple be with existing characters? (e.g Diavolo/Lucifer, Solomon/Asmodeus)

Due to the timing of this event, We, unfortunately, cannot accept these couples for White Day. Had this been planned out earlier, Mikaela could've made the event Valentine's Day themed to accommodate every couple/ship possible, but it's quite too soon for that T_T

Good news is that there are plans to host an exchange catered to all couples at a later date, so stay tuned for that >_o
