Top 4 Holiday Activities

BY: MADISON CIRELLI

It's finally that time of the year! In this article I will tell you amazing Christmas activities to get into the holiday spirit!

1. Secret Santa! Most people know about this super fun holiday activity, but if you don't know I'll tell you! Secret Santa is where you exchange Christmas presents anonymously, each member of the group being assigned another member which you give a gift to. I recommend small gifts so you can give lots of gifts to the person.
2. Watch Christmas movies! Watching Christmas movies is one of my favorite holiday activities. I love being wrapped up in a warm, fuzzy blanket, with hot chocolate with tiny marshmallows. Some awesome Christmas movies are Home Alone, Home Alone 2, The Grinch (all the versions are pretty good), The Polar Express, Klaus, A Christmas Carol, The Nightmare Before

3. Spin the dreidel game!

According to "Hanukkah Fun Activities" The game needs a dreidel and countable game pieces such as pennies, nuts, or raisins. Each player starts with the same number of pieces (roughly 10-15). In each round, every player puts one of their game pieces into a center "pot." They should repeat this step each time the pot is empty or has only one piece left. For their turn, each player spins the dreidel, which contains the four Hebrew letters nun, gimel, hey, or shin. Where the dreidel lands determines whether you get or lose pieces from the center pot. Once you lose all of your game pieces, you are out. (Although you can ask another player for one of their pieces to keep playing, with no guarantee that they will give you one!) The game ends when a player wins all the pieces in the pot.

4. Create a paper dreidel! The materials you need are a small stapler and staples, craft paper (origami paper works best), scissors, markers, and string (optional). The steps for this is to first cut out two dreidel shapes that are the same size. The second step is to fold both shapes in half vertically. The third step is to staple the creases together. Now the dreidel should have four "sides." The fourth step is to draw each of the following Hebrew letters on one of the dreidel's

Ice Skating

Ice skating is a fun activity you can do with your family and friends. Ice skating can be fun for all ages. When you ice skate, you put on these rollerblade looking shoes. It might be hard to go on the ice at first, but when you get the hang of it's actually really fun! Some ice skating places have little penguins or something similar to hold on to if you aren't stable on the ice.

sides using a marker: shin, hey, gimel, nun. The last thing is to make as many as you want and decorate your dreidel. It can also be added to a string for a nice window decoration, or placed around your house to add a bit of color for the holiday.

All in all, I hope you found an activity that you can do to get in the holiday spirit! Bye Paulo Panthers 🐾

Holiday Movies

There are so many great holiday movies out there! But these are my most favorite to watch during the Christmas holidays. Home Alone is probably my most favorite holiday movie. Home Alone is about a young boy who was going to go on a family trip, but he was forgotten at home, because of the amount of people there was in the house. After he had woken up, there was no one in the house. At first he was happy because he could spend time alone, but when the bandits come he gets a great idea. There were two bandits trying to break into his family's house. He needed to save his house so he set up the best traps. He even bought his own supplies, with police chasing him after. Also I really love Princess Switch. Princess Switch is a movie about two young girls who are very alike and they switch places for a day because they want to see what it's like in each other's lives. One girl is a princess, the other is a baker from Chicago. There are 3 movies of "Princess Switch". The princess's cousin is evil and they worked as spies. I really enjoyed all 3 movies.

Baking

Baking is amazing for the holidays. Like warm cookies or pie. You could make amazing Christmas sand cookies. Sand cookies are soft and sand-like, because they break apart like sand does. If you make Christmas cookies you can make them look like a tree, snowman, snowflake, star, present, or even santa!

Review is What I Say

We review games here... that's really it...

BY: DAVID KAHT

Hello! It's me, David, from Review is What I Say. If you don't already know, this section is named after my YouTube channel, which ironically doesn't have any reviews on it. Click here. Welcome to the last issue of 2022. May Santa give you pretty whatever's, the mensch on the bench to beat the heck out of your enemy, and the fireworks not make your dog do insane howls. Today, we will be talking about another popular mobile game that has died off, but with a much less happy end:

Flappy Bird

Long ago... in 2014, there was this guy in Vietnam named Dong Nguyen who was fascinated with video game development from a young age... ANYWAY in 2013, he made this game called, well, you know, as an attempt to make a simpler game than what was seen on the app store at the time. The game is so simple that a 2 year old could learn how to play within minutes. You tap. The bird flaps. Don't touch the autoscrolling pipes. That's it. This simple concept of a rage game involving birds and Super Mario pipes would boost the game to popularity, but not yet. Similarly to Among Us, it took a bit for the game to blow up, but when it did in 2014, it hella did, no thanks to PewDiePie playing the game for his at the time over 10 million subs. These Super Mario pipes would end up being the game's downfall, because whether it be lawsuits, or whether it be raging hate, the game was off the app store by February. While it would get a re-release on Amazon Fire TV, it would never return to mobile. That was it. Flappy Bird was out of the app store a mere 9 months after its release. Nowadays the game lives on in web versions and knock-off apps, and after playing one of them, the game is infuriating and it is fun... for like 5 minutes. It becomes a bit unfun at that point as there is no variety in the gameplay, which I get is the point, but it just loses charm really quickly. The reason the game blew up was because of how addictive it was, but I just don't recommend it. This usually doesn't happen, but I'm not a fan. You can try it if you want, but it's just not my thing. Not like it's a bad game, but just... no thanks.

Fun things to do in NYC

Max Brenner

If you're a chocolate lover you will love this place! Max Brenner is a restaurant that has everything with chocolate! If you order their pizza, it won't be a regular pizza it would be chocolate pizza. It would have marshmallows, ice-cream, gummy bears and much more sweets on it! You could order a chocolate fountain with strawberries, and bananas ! hot chocolate and so much more sweets! This place is located in Manhattan. It is a big place and it even has a chocolate factory that you will see when you enter!

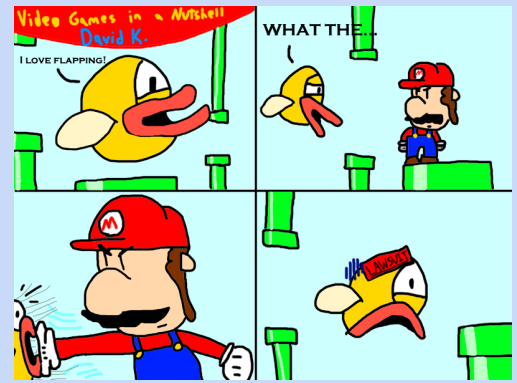

The Statue Of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty is an amazing place everyone knows! It's world wide known. If you haven't been there yet let me explain. The Statue Of Liberty is a big green statue with a lady holding a book and a torch. This statue was delivered from France a long time ago to NYC as a present. This famous statue is known for more. You could buy tickets to go into the statue, you could go into a cafe and have a picnic on the grass by the statue. You can come to the statue by the faerie from Staten Island or manhattan. Its a fun place to visit

Classic Christmas Movies

BY: MORGAN MCGOWAN

Christmas Known as the best time of the year, is approaching. Whether or not you celebrate Christmas you have probably heard and may have even watched these movies.

Home alone Is about a boy named Kevin Mccallister who was supposed to go on a nice trip to Paris with his family for the holidays when he finds out he's been forgotten and left at home. The boy does things his parents would never let him do like eat icecream for breakfast and watch rated R movies. Everything is going well but then 2 robbers try to break in. Kevin must defend himself and his home. This movie is a classic made in 1990. It's one of my favorite Christmas movies because of the comedy and jokes. If you have never watched this I definitely recommend it.

Elf Is a comedy movie about a boy named Buddy who snuck into Santa's workshop as a baby and got raised as an elf. When Buddy gets older Santa tells him where he is really from and who his real parents are. Buddy goes to New York to meet his dad but he doesn't want anything to do with him. Buddy tries to adjust and in the end he has to save Christmas for the land. This is a great movie that is funny but a little emotional.

The grinch who stole christmas is in my opinion the best christmas movie. Starring Jim Carrey, this movie is about a green character called the grinch.

The grinch hates Christmas and hates happiness. Then he meets cindy-lou-who who is a little girl who lives in whoville. She meets the grinch and shows him the true joys of christmas. The grinch then learns to love christmas.

Shake it off was another song that eventually got less popular, it was on her album 1989 (her 5th album) and was another single that blew up due to it being associated with the build up to a new album

3. Love story

Love story, one of her early songs, was on her 2nd album Fearless. This song

Hello! It's me, David, from Review is What I Say. If you don't already know, this section is named after my YouTube channel, which ironically doesn't have any reviews on it. Click here. No into today. Today, we will be talking about the most popular mobile game of ALL TIME, at least it was for 3 months:

Pokémon GO

It is a warm summer in 2016. The warmest summer in human history. People are at home, looking for things to do to soak in this especially warm sun. And then, against all odds, Pokémon GO was born. Within, not joking, ONE WEEK, the game reached 10 million downloads, and the internet was on fire. Every single YouTuber, Twitch Streamer, and their grandparents were playing, and at its peak, the game was at 250 million active users a month. Why DID it reach such peaks? Well, the game was a way to get people outside. The game's premise is VERY simple. You are a character in the map of the real world. As you move around in the real world, so does your character. As you walk, you will find a bunch of Pokémon, which you can tap on. Then you can swipe a Pokéball towards the Pokémon, and try to catch it. Just like most Pokémon games, there's a Pokédex, Pokemon battles, type matchups, and trading. However, there are a bunch of Pokéstops that you can tap on and spin to get items, and Gyms, but unlike the main-series games, you put your Pokémon in the gyms, and have them stay there for as long as possible to earn Pokécoins to buy stuff in the shop. Of course you can also get the coins with your mom's credit card, but that's not exactly recommended. Why did Pokémon GO fall from popularity anyway? One reason: boredom. As history's hottest summer came to a close, so did people's interest in the game. At first, there were only Pokémon from Gen 1 (AKA, Pokémon Red and Blue [or Green if you're Japanese]), and that accounts for 151 Pokémon. This sounds like a lot, until you realize that by September, people realized that the game only had so much to do. People started deleting the game in mass, and by the end of the year, when the Gen 2 update came out, the game's active monthly user base was but a 5th of before. Not only that, but many game related accidents began to occur, and people began getting hurt, and even dying. One old man ended up catching a Lapras, and died of a heart attack in excitement. People were turned off. Was the game bad? Hell no. Is the game still bad? HELL NO! The game is great. In fact, it's still really popular. In 2021, half a decade after Pokémania 2.0, there were 71 million active monthly users, and while it is MUCH lower than before, it's still insane for a mere mobile game. Also, it's one of Game Freak's biggest cash grabbers, raking in over a billion in 2021 alone, 400 million more than at its peak! It is free on the app store, and I recommend it SO much! Please play it. The amount of features I'll leave YOU to discover are insane! The game is beginning to feel like a REAL Pokémon game, and I want you to have a good time. Catch 'em all, but just don't walk off a cliff like the poor sap in this issue's comic.

was written by Swift in less than 10 minutes relating her relationship to Romeo and Juliet but with a happy ending.

2. Bad blood

Bad blood was also on 1989 (the 5th album) was a very popular song because it was associated with a feud Swift had with another popular singer.

1. Blank space

Black space, another song from her 5th album 1989 was very popular. Not only was it very popular because of how good the song is but it was a big hit because it was on 1989 one of her more popular albums.

Birthdays in December

BY: AMANDA MONOGHAN

There are birthdays in December because they were born on the 20th-26th. I am a christmas baby who was born on december 22nd at 2:00 in the morning im an early bird. Children make a list to see what they want for their birthday. I am hard to shop for because I do not play with toys anymore. I like makeup, perfume, baking, gift cards, clothes, elvis stuff, stranger things stuff,. It feels like December went fast throughout the years. For my birthday my mom decorated the house for me and when I woke up I saw all of the pretty decorations hanging. It is just what I dreamed about the decorations when I was sleeping in my bed. I do not mind having a birthday in December because it is just so fun and you get to have a party before christmas. With birthday banners and ribbons amongst rudolph and frosty.

I don't mind having a holiday birthday as there are those that were born on valentines day or cinco de mayo or independence day. Celebrities who were born in December include Zoe Kravitz, Britney Spears, Jay-Z, Nicki Minaj, Lebron James, and Sara Bareilles to name a few. A lot of people who have birthdays in december they enjoy it and they also party on there birthday some kids who are a teenager and turing 14, 15, 16, 17,18, 19, when some kids birthdays are early and late they turn a different age probably your brother and sister have the same birthday as you and you are twins some brothers and sisters did not like to share their birthday there are two students who are in my class and they have the same birthday in april. It's Joseph Tenaglia, and I'm gonna leave a review on how I think Knock at the Cabin is going to be. I think it looks like a 4.5 star movie. It looks really creepy, and very fun to watch. It will be released on February 3, 2023. The MPAA rated this movie R for violence and language. I can still see it though.

your birthday. For my tenth birthday I went to New York city and went to see the tree. When I woke up on my birthday I saw the house decorated. I was shocked that my family woke up with me and handed me my birthday gifts. While my mom went to get my cake I was on the computer doing my classes. While I was doing my classes online I opened up my blind bags from the lol surprise boom box. It came with 75 plus surprises inside of it. After my classes my aunts, uncle, and my grandma came and visited me because they wanted to give me my birthday gifts so i can open them. A few minutes later we went to pick up my sister in law named jenn and nephew named troy. When we got to eat a talian we got seated with a glass of water, plates, silver wear, and napkins a waitress came with a pen and paper to see what we wanted to drink i wanted a coke no. a few minutes later the drinks came out and the waitress said what would you like to eat i chose penne vodka the waitress gave us bread with butter, a few longer moments later our food came out i tasted it and it was tasing so yummy and good i would get it again. Homework: Good or bad?

BY: MADISON CIRELLI

Many people believe homework should be banned, but I personally believe that it should stay, just maybe less of it! I noticed this year we received a lot more homework compared to last year, but I noticed I improved with subjects that give homework since I start to remember back to the homework and the steps I took to answer the question.

Some reasons I think homework is a good thing since it helps reinforce life skills and it helps classroom skills! According to "Homework Pros and Cons" students typically retain only 50% of the information teachers provide in class, and they need to apply that information in order to truly learn it. This data shows how half the information talked about in class needs to be solved by the student to truly understand the topic presented. Also, the article explains that homework actually improves student achievement. Some more data provided stated students in classes that were assigned homework outperformed 69% of students who didn't have homework on both standardized tests and grades. This shows how the hypothesis homework helps students on tests were proved correct due to the 69% difference.

Some people believe data isn't accurate sometimes, so I decided to provide a one on one interview with two of my teachers. My interview is with my

Top Music Artists this Winter

BY: CHRISTINA TIMOSHKOV

Everyone enjoys listening to music. While some people only listen to music for enjoyment, others do so to relieve stress. 90-93% of people today listen to music. But whose music do these people listen to? In this article, I'll list the top 5 music artists this winter.

Unsurprisingly, Taylor Swift is the most popular artist this winter. Throughout her career, Taylor Swift has 7th grade English teacher Miss Giovanniello! I asked Miss Giovanniello "Why do you think homework is beneficial for students?" She replied, "It's good to reinforce skills in class, building stamina, and reading homework is beneficial in particular since it helps you learn more vocabulary." I also asked "While homework is beneficial, does it have cons? What are they?" She answered, "Yes homework has cons! Kids have a life after school, for example they have sports, dance, music, clubs in and out of school, and these things are important because they make you well rounded. They allow you to develop other talents. Also, it's good for you to have time for family and friends, like family dinners are very important." I asked "Do you think homework overwhelmed students or do you think it's helpful to understand lessons or units better?" She responded, "I think it's both, it can be overwhelming because students have a lot going on at home, there may be distractions that make it difficult, they also may not have the help they need if they have questions." Lastly, I asked "Do you have any additional thoughts?" She then replied, "I think that's it's important to remember that academics are important, but they are not the only important part of the students life."

While homework is beneficial, it could also be negative. Homework can make students stay up very late with very little sleep and then the school makes them get up very early from busing to driving. Homework also causes less time with friends, family, extracurricular activities in or out of school, and less time to relax from being at school for 6 hours and 45 minutes, but homework is still a necessary thing for students to get better! Homework is a very good thing even though it's stressful. Homework helps students get better at the lessons taught and get a better understanding of the units.

All in all, I hope you now see homework comes with good intentions! Even though homework is very stressful and overwhelming it is very good.

Holiday Specials: Merry Heistmas!

BY: QUINN GAO & KARTER CHEN

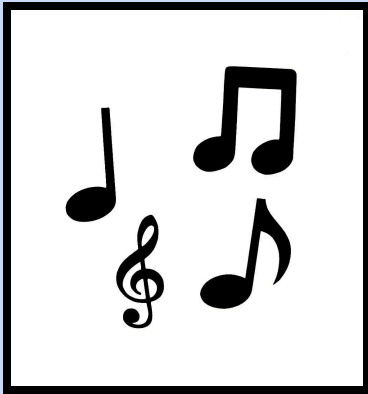

Holiday Specials: New Year, Very Old Fear

Coming up in second is Drake. I'm not sure about you, but I'm genuinely surprised by that. I haven't heard many of his songs this year, besides his multiple hits that gained attraction on TikTok.

The Weeknd is third on the list. I honestly feel like he deserved more attention this year. This year, he had a number of significant hits, but they faded away very soon.

Lastly is BTS. I'm actually very surprised they got 7.5 billion streams on Spotify this year. Although they were highly well-liked at the start of 2022, they completely lost their appeal later in the year.

Many people have different opinions about who should have been on this list. According to Google these are the top 4 music artists this winter.

streaming services are Netflix, Hulu, Disney plus, Spotify, Apple music ect... Streaming services have content that includes anything and everything. But what is the best streaming service? Let's see.

Spotify is a music streaming service. It has a playlist, songs and podcast. Spotify is free with ads which draws a lot of users to use them. Spotify does have a premium option which allows users to skip any song as much as they want, no ads and you can listen to music offline.

Apple music is also another music streaming service. You have to pay no matter what membership you have. Apple music also has music, playlist and podcast. The debate has always been about which service is better.

Netflix is a very very popular streaming service which shows tv shows and movies. Netflix offers something that no other streaming service offers, netflix originals!! Netflix originals have taken over the world including 13 reasons why, never have I ever and the new show Dharmer.

Disney plus offers disney originals and other creators like universal and pixar. Disney plus has all disney shows and movies which makes this a great app for kids and disney lovers. I love disney plus because it reminds of my childhood.

The debate lives on. What do you think??

Netherlands scored twice The score is now 3-0. USA finally scores! 3-1 is the new score. The USA still has a chance to win! Usa lost but they fought Netherlands and advanced to the quarterfinals.

Overwatch 2 Review

Overwatch 2 Review

I love Overwatch 2. It's just Overwatch but with more graphics and more characters. Overwatch is fun but I think it needs more than more characters and maps. I like the new character JunkerQueen. All Overwatch characters have a video/movie backstory. Junkerqueen's backstory is At some point, her father, and possibly all of her siblings passed away. As recounted in The Legend of the Junker Queen, Odessa made a name for herself in the Wasteland. She slew various ferocious omnic, mutants, and raiders, and embarked on a journey to the Burning Lands, destroying the Five Metal Demons. Omnic are robots that turn evil and try to kill the Overwatch team in the lore { There is no story mode in overwatch just PVP [Player Vs Player] } Like there are some good backstories like Hanzo and Genji When his father passed, Hanzo was left to lead the Shimada ninja clan. The clan's elders pushed him to bring his carefree brother, Genji, into line—leading to confrontation where Hanzo struck Genji down. Night of 100 Pizzas

BY: AMANDA MONAGHAN

You must dress nicely and appropriately, NO PAJAMA pants. First before you get into the gym you have to go into the auditorium and someone on the microphone will announce the rules they are do not pop the balloons, do not play with the decorations, the dJ will call you by home room so you can get your pizza, leave your jackets on your chair, if you want bring your wallet, and most important have a great time and night together with your friends. Someone on the microphone will call you row by row to go into the gym and start the party. When you get upstairs there will be students with boxes and put your tickets in the box so you can enter now let the party begin. When you enter the gym you will see decorations and you will see a DJ that is really loud. You dance and hang out with your friends and party. If the music is too loud you can go outside and calm down. When the DJ calls your homeroom that means you can go outside and get a slice of pizza and a mini water bottle. You may go get another slice of pizza if there are extras. You can go back and party for a few minutes. You may also take photos and videos with your friend dancing and singing. When you are done dancing for another minute you can get a snack with your own money and give it to the lady that is working the dance. The dance is from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm so have fun as you can. When the dance is over you will be called by your homeroom to go back to the

Top 5 Christmas Decorating Tips

BY: CHRISTOPHER PAPANDREA

Ok, To start things off, I will list 5 tips for Christmas decorating.

1. Add Cozy Fabrics And Textures

Adding fabric like flannel, wool, grain-sack, and velvet can add such a cozy feel. People love adding these textures throughout their home with pillows, blankets, table runners, etc.

2. Add Greenery And Natural Elements

One reason that it's great to bring in these natural elements to decorate is because they are cheap!

3. Bring in Candles and Firewood

Fire is just so cozy and warm for the holidays, but if you don't have a fireplace, you can still bring in that cozy element of fire by bringing in some candles and firewood.

4. Keep It small and simple

No matter what stage of life you are in or whatever your living situation, you can still bring in cozy touches, even if it is to only one room with a little greenery or candles. Just a little bit of decor can give your home that special holiday warmth.

5. Wrap Gifts Early

If you have the opportunity to go Christmas shopping early, I suggest wrapping the presents and then adding them around the house

The 5 Most Beautiful Places to visit during the Winter

BY: CHRISTINA TIMOSHKOV

I always want to go outside in the winter because it is such a beautiful season. Visiting different places is personally my favorite winter activity. I really enjoy going to new areas. In this article, I'll discuss the top 5 most stunning locations to visit in the winter.

Obviously, New York comes first. Everyone is familiar with and fascinated of New York in the winter. The massive Christmas Tree is, in my opinion, the best destination in New York. You can go there with your family and have a wonderful time; it's a gorgeous location!

Another one of the most beautiful places is Lake Tahoe in the winter. There are so many things to do there in the winter! Like sleigh rides, ice skating, snowshoeing, skiing, and snowboarding, among many other winter activities! This winter, you can create even more incredible memories there with your loved ones.

Boulder, Colorado, is one of the nicest and most stunning locations to visit in the winter. I personally believe it is well worth a visit, despite the fact that it is a little chilly there!

Florida is a state we all know and love, and we all adore going there in the summer. But what if I told you that it's also a fantastic location to visit in the winter? Winters in Florida are generally warm, with temperatures ranging from the upper 70s to the low 60s. It's a fantastic way to escape the New York cold without getting it too hot!

Let's begin with the pros. To start off, TikTok is enjoyable. You can publish your own videos and watch many other videos without becoming bored! TikTok is full of things like comedy, duets, and fun dances.

TikTok can be helpful for making online friends as well! Online friends, according to many, are terrible because you can't really learn how to interact in real life from them. But since many teenagers are shy, it might be challenging for them to make in-person friends. This proves that online friends might not be as bad as you think. Of course, you have to be aware of the people on the internet and stay safe!

You may be as creative as you like on TikTok, which is great! You could create new sounds, filters, dances, and trends! TikTok has a ton of entertainment options for teenagers. Teens' creativity and self-expression will benefit greatly from this!

TikTok can be used for businesses and for earning money, as many people already know. I frequently see people selling bracelets, clothing, and even cosmetics on my "for you" page. With this app, you can establish a business with the potential to go viral. Many influencers profit from TikTok and rely on it for their daily income. Similar to Charli D'amelio. She started out by making viral dancing videos, and now she is successful on TikTok!

Now the cons. Teens could get bullied on the app. Referring back to Charli, when she started gaining fame but more haters came along. This can really hurt the teen and might even make them depressed. Dealing with hate is really hard, especially when there is a lot of it.

Bad videos can be found on TikTok as well. On TikTok, there has been a "trend" going around that basically says, "Like, Follow, and share this video to get five years of good luck!" Although it may not appear as horrible, I have seen a video that said, "If you skip this video then you will die tomorrow." This is messed up. There might be children scrolling through this app, and seeing this might frighten them. Even worse, these videos are untrue! It is only used for the Lastly, North Pole, Alaska. Alaska is well known for its extremely frigid winters and this region of Alaska is very similar to the North Pole! This place includes the Arctic Circle, Santa's House, and other holiday attractions are all available. This is the ideal location to go if you really want to get into the Christmas spirit this year!

These are just a few of the top winter travel destinations. Of course, there are a ton more breathtaking locations you may visit. These are only some of my personal favorites, which I assure you will adore.

creator to get views and likes. This is seriously screwed up.

Many people believe that TikTok is a waste of time and might lower kids' grades, and I kind of agree with that. It's difficult to quit watching TikTok since it's so entertaining like I said before. You're tempted to browse further down and view more videos as soon as one ends. You can become distracted by your phone and stop working as a result of this.

As you can tell, TikTok has its pros and cons. You can get away from all the bad things by following the TikTok boundaries and the content restrictions. Now that you have heard all the pros and cons, do you think TikTok should be banned?
