

I. Home Page

Introduction to the strictly water heater.

A brief overview of the company's history and mission statement

- This where you would say how you got started
- You can also say that you are locally owned and operated
- You can leave the customer Customer Satisfaction Guaranteed and strictly water heaters in constant communication with our customers until the job is done.

A visually appealing design that catches the user's attention

- Use bright colors to catch the reader's attention

II. Services Page

Detailed descriptions of the services you offer.

- This is where you put the type of services you offer.
- This is where you answer your customers Frequently asked questions about your services.
- You can also include your service area

III. Reviews/Testimonials Page

A section dedicated to customer reviews and testimonials

- This is where include the reviews customers have given you on other platforms

IV. Contact Page

Clear and concise contact information, including phone number, email address, and physical address

- This is where you can leave your email and phone number so your website visitors know how to contact you.
- You can also include your physical address so the website visitors know your physical location.

Contact form for users to submit inquiries and requests

- A contact form a place where visitors can submit inquiries and requests.

V About Us Page

More detailed information about the company, including its history, team members, and awards or accolades

- More information about your company such as the people who work their and the awards you guys have received.