

EPISTLE – 16 JUNE 2024

Dear Saints,

Psalm 25:20-21, rendered in The Message, says, “Keep watch over me and keep me out of trouble; Don’t let me down when I run to you. Use all your skill to put me together; I wait to see your finished product.”

In the devotion we used in the New Members Class this last semester, we repeated the refrain, “Remind us, O Lord, that we are a work in process.” Here the psalmist offers the same idea: we are God’s work-in-progress. Therefore, be gentle with yourself. God’s still at work in you; God’s not done yet. Amen.

Please remember that on the 23rd of June we will meet with the UPCSA for worship at 10am at St Andrews in town - and not at St Columba’s. NO Service on 23rd at St Columba’s!

This Sunday, we are inviting all Fathers to join with us, oh, AND all Mothers! It is Father’s Day and Youth Day all rolled into one. So we invite you to come and worship God, Fathers and Mothers and Youth together. The Book of Ruth in the Old Testament brings together the ministry of women and men and youth in the service of God’s kingdom. May God reign as we serve God together! Women, men and youth!

In Christ,

Rev Craig
