	Cindy practiced Ikebana since 2001. She was a President of the Milwaukee Chapter 22 from 2009-2011 and a certified Associate Junior Master of Ichiyo School. She is still active in the Ikebana community through programming events, performing demonstrations at the local garden club, and exhibiting in venues like the Milwaukee Art Museum and Museum of Wisconsin Art. Her displays at local libraries have helped bring the joy of Ikebana to the public. Cindy originated the “Make and Take” program through the Kenosha Museum which aims to give community members hands on access to Ikebana during the holidays. Her passion for flower arrangements has helped bring serenity and peace into her life.
