

Collegiate Words Test 201-225

Matching

A) multifarious B) probity C) restive D) truculent
E) stupefy AB) promulgate AC) surfeit
AD) inure AE) invective

- 1) ((adj))-resistant, stubborn, impatient
- 2) (n)- an angry verbal attack
- 3) (n)- virtue and integrity
- 4) (v)- to astonish
- 5) (n)- an overabundant supply
- 6) (v)- to proclaim, to make known
- 7) (adj)- having great variety or diversity
- 8) (adj) ready to fight, cruel
- 9) (v)- to cause someone or something to become accustomed to a situation

Multiple Choice

10) (adj)- effective, articulate, clear-cut

- a) precocious
- b) trenchant
- c) prescient
- d) truculent

11) (adj)- advanced, developing before time

- a) punctilious
- b) prescient
- c) officious
- d) precocious

12) (n)- generosity in giving

- a) punctilious
- b) multifarious
- c) invective
- d) munificence

13) (n)- a strong inclination towards something

- a) prescient
- b) promulgate
- c) proclivity
- d) probity

14) (v)- to obliterate, to eradicate

- a) inure
- b) restive
- c) expiate
- d) expunge

15) (v)- to make amends for, atone

- a) expunge
- b) probity
- c) restive
- d) expiate

16) (adj)- coarsely, crudely humorous

- a) primeval
- b) probity
- c) vilify
- d) ribald

17) (v)- to conceal or fake

- a) dissemble
- b) vicissitude
- c) restive
- d) primeval

Fill in each sentence with the correct word.

A) opulent B) portent C) officious D) prescient
E) alacrity AB) vilify AC) vicissitudes
AD) primeval

18) Homo Erectus is one of the _____ ancestors of man to first stand upright.

19) I have no interest in fancy cars or _____ houses; I find great beauty in the simple, humble, and ordinary

20) Let's face it; it's the _____ of life that make living so, very interesting.

21) Due to her extreme fear of flying, she saw the light turbulence as a _____ of impending doom.

22) Because he testified against his employer for fraud, the lawyer for the defense did his very best to _____ the State's witness.

23) Because she is so masterful in mathematics, she took umbrage with my _____ offer to help her with her math assignment.

24) Because she had foreknowledge of the science quiz, her peers thought she was _____; this was not true--she just read the agenda on the instructor's website.

25) If you approach your academic studies with _____ rather than dragging your feet, you will find much greater joy in your homework.