PLAYER PROFILE

Leah Arroyo is a great student athlete while prioritizing school work and working hard on the field. As a freshman, she played most minutes and started every game. As a sophomore with her first varsity experience, she has demonstrated her ability to work hard and is committed to continuous improvement on the field and at school.

Her freshman season made her a key contributor, earning the newcomer of the year award on JV 1 while showing exceptional academic excellence. Being asked to play on varsity towards the end of the season shows her hard work and improvement throughout the year. It also shows that shes highly receptive to technical adjustments.

Key Attributes:

- Effectively balanced high-level soccer with academic responsibilities through discipline, strong time management, and commitment to excellence on and off the field
- Rapid speed and acceleration, combined with exceptional physical strength allows for outpacing most opponents, and winning physical battles
- Bringing a relentless work rate, always willing to track back, support teammates, and put in extra effort.
