

Faculty of Engineering

Strategic Objectives:

A distinguished and effective management that works on the continuous development of the educational process.

Outstanding education that elevates the value and quality of student learning through the research environment.

Enhancing and creating an educational environment.

Distinguished faculty members to meet the needs of the educational process.

Maintaining the competitive position of the college.

Serving the community locally and regionally and spreading environmental awareness.
