

Dear volunteers,

Reaching out this afternoon to say THANK YOU!

When the call for volunteers went out late last week, you all answered. From calling parents, to moving furniture, to organizing books, and supplies, your time has contributed to a great start to the school year for our teachers and students.

Especially with the extra barriers distance learning has presented, your support is deeply appreciated. I had a chance to visit the school yesterday afternoon, and I heard from a number of teachers how much it meant to have another set of hands (and phones!). For those of you who signed up to volunteer next week, please lookout for a separate email with more details.

And more information to come on opportunities to support this fall. Have a great weekend!

Sincerely,
