Mid-Unit Assessment Extension Instructions

Instructions for Strengthen and Refine Group
Use the think-pair-write routine to discuss your written responses, make connections to the text, and revise your writing using partner feedback.

- Think: Exchange your Mid-Unit Assessment written response with a partner. Use the Mid-Unit Assessment Rubric criteria to help you record what you notice and wonder as you read your partner's written response.
- Pair: Discuss what you noticed and wondered with your partner. Then reread Everything Sad Is Untrue starting on p. 179 ("A history lesson") to p. 185 ("The rest is flushed and gone"). Discuss the multiple-choice questions and correct any questions you missed, now that you've reread the text and discussed it.
- Write: Revise your Mid-Unit Assessment written response using the feedback from your partner
