Administrative Organs

The Secretariat

The Secretariat's primary effort lies in providing any working papers, draft resolutions, placards, Identification (ID) badges and any other needed documents and items to the delegates. Furthermore, the Secretariat is your primary source for any logistical matters during the conference. In general, it should be your first place to go if you have any issues – and if they cannot fix it, they can direct you to the person or people who can.

The Approval Panel (AP)

The Approval Panel is composed of a rotating set of MUN Directors from the participating schools, and they handle the language, grammar and Charter corrections. Before a resolution can be debated in the forums, it has to pass the Approval Panel as the first organ. Here, formatting issues are ignored.

The Approval Panel is led by MUN Directors: Jesper Rasmussen and Jacob Skött from Nyborg Gymnasium

The Formal Clearance Office (FCO)

The Formal Clearance Office handles formatting of resolutions, such that they follow the official format, regarding both layout, names of the nations mentioned, and the preambulatory and operative phrases.

The Head of The Formal Clearance Office is: Jeppe Brunshøj Fredensborg

The Headquarters (HQ)

The headquarters is the home of the Secretary-General, the conference manager and their respective deputies. At least one of the members of the executive team will be present at any given moment at this office, and they will be able to assist you with issues that are of a more advanced or delicate nature. The main purpose of the headquarters is to serve as the primary contact point between you and the team. However, it should only be used as an option for matters which the secretariat cannot help with, as the executive team members are generally busy.

General Information

Co-Sponsors

Before a draft resolution can be passed onto the Formal Clearance and later the Approval Panel, it needs a minimum of 25% of the committee to sign as co-sponsors. Being a co-sponsor does not necessarily mean that you are willing to speak in favour or agree with the contents, but it means that you are willing to participate in the discussion of the issue and the resolution.

Amendments

While debating a resolution in time against or open debate, an Amendment can be made. An Amendment is defined as a proposal to change, strike out, or add single words, clauses, or parts of clauses. An Amendment has to be submitted to the Student Officers of the forum on the Amendment Sheets that are provided by the Administrative Staff.

Amendments are always passed by a simple majority, except in the Security Council, in which special voting rules apply for all voting procedures. If an additional Amendment is proposed during the processing of an Amendment, this will be recognised as a second-degree Amendment, or the Amendment to an Amendment. If a secondary Amendment is voted upon and gains a majority, the Amendment to the first degree passes automatically, if not passed, the first-degree Amendment continues to be debated.

Lobbying

Lobbying is a type of informal caucus, which is held prior to the debates, in which delegates can exchange ideas, merge draft resolutions into final draft resolutions, and more research can be done on the issues. Formal debating rules, with the exception of speaking in the official language (English), do not apply to lobbying.

Official Language

The official language at Model United Nations of Nyborg is English, and thus any communication or work which is done and used at the conference must be conducted in English. Non-compliance to this is punishable by the Student Officers, and continued non-compliance will be reported to the Secretaries-General.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is considered to be any submitted work which has in part, or whole, proven to not be the work of yourself, and which is not referenced appropriately to the correct and original source.

Any non-compliance towards these rules regarding plagiarism is condemned by the MUNNY organising team, and it will lead to exclusion from the conference.

Dress Code

- ✓ Trousers, knee-length skirt.
- ✓ Shirts and blouses with appropriate necklines and subtle print.
- ✓ A blazer or suit jacket which fits the dress, skirt, shirt, or trousers.
- ✓ Ties are allowed but they cannot have any funny prints, and NO butterflies.
- ✓ A knee-length dress with appropriate necklines, subtle print and covered shoulders.
- ✓ Black, dark blue or brown formal shoes are allowed.
- ✓ Jeans are not accepted-not even black.
- ✓ Suit trousers.
- ✓ White, black, blue or any other subtle coloured shirt, buttoned to the top.
- ✓ A suit jacket that fits with the suit trousers.
- ✓ Subtle colours like blue, deep red, black and white.
- ✓ Bowties are not allowed.
- ✓ High heeled shoes that do not show the toes.
- ✓ No sneakers are permitted.

The dress code must be obeyed at all times during session. This will be observed closely by both the Student Officers and the Secretaries-General. Non-compliance will lead to a reprimand, and it has to be corrected for the proceeding of the conference.

Badges

When you are registered upon your arrival to the conference, you will be given your badge. This is your primary means of identification, and you must keep it visible at all times when you are present at conference activities. This badge is the only item granting you entry to the evening events. Finally, any loss of the badge must be reported to the secretariat, as you will need a new one, since the badge secures you that you receive all of your participant rights such as receiving lunch and entry to the evening activities. Any badge remake due to loss will be charged 10 kr (2€)

Placards

All delegates will be supplied with a delegation placard in their respective forums. This placard is used for signalling to the student officer, and for voting procedures. This placard must not leave the forum and must also be visible to the student officers of the respective forums at all times.

Administrative Staff

Every forum is supplied with at least two administrative staff (ad-staff). They function as practical personnel and are concerned with assisting on voting procedures, and passing out notepapers, amendments, food, beverages and any relevant documents.

Notepaper

Notepapers are an opportunity for delegates to communicate with one another in the forums, as well as between forums to your delegation's Ambassador. The Ambassador may likewise send a note paper to any of the delegates of their own delegation.

The Administrative Staff will screen all notepapers that are passed around, and if there are any irrelevant or inappropriate notepapers, they will be taken to the Secretaries-General.

Smoking

Due to school policies, smoking is not permitted on school premises at any time during the day and must be done off school grounds. If you are unsure of where smoking is and is not allowed, please do not hesitate to ask any Executive Team member or any participant familiar with Nyborg Gymnasium.

Evening Activities

There will be several social events planned during the conference, which allows the delegates and student officers to mingle and get to know one another in a more informal setting. The rules for consumption of alcohol are set by the MUN-directors.

Student Officer-Specific Points

These points are to be explained to your delegates, as well as serving as a reminder to your own information.

Eating And Drinking

During the session it is not allowed to eat. Student officers should make at least five minute breaks after each discussed resolution, in order for the delegates to eat something or go to the bathroom. Drinking is allowed throughout the session. However, it is strictly forbidden to drink alcohol! Delegates who are intoxicated during the conference hours should be sent to the Secretary-General.

Sunglasses And Hats

During the session it is not allowed to wear sunglasses or hats. Student officers must ask the delegates wearing them to take them off. During 'extreme cases' such as sunlight disrupting delegates, the student officers may allow delegates to wear e.g. sunglasses.

First Timers

Student officers must stay friendly and patient with the first timers, advise and help them. Student officers should also encourage first timers to participate in the debate.

Distracting Delegates

In case there is a distracting delegate in a committee, the student officer must contact them through notepapers and talk to them after the session. In case the delegate fails to settle down and continuously disturbs the course of the debate, the Secretary-General or Conference Manager must be contacted. They will then talk to the delegate and to the corresponding MUN-director.

Chair Briefing And Debriefing

The chair briefings will take place before session, and immediately after session.

During the briefing information about evening activities and other useful things will be given to the student officers. During debriefings student officers and the Secretaries-General give feedback and discuss any problems that may have occurred.

Evening Activities

There will be several social events planned during the conference, which allows the delegates and student officers to mingle and get to know one another in a more informal setting. The rules for consumption of alcohol are set by the MUN-directors, but keep this in mind:

No student under the age of 16 is allowed to buy or consume alcohol at arranged events. Students 16 or above are permitted to purchase beverages with an alcohol percentage of less than 6% only students above 18 are allowed to buy and/or consume stronger alcoholic beverages. Denmark only permits people above 18 to purchase alcoholic beverages at bars.

Committee Evening

This year, on Thursday, 22nd of January, we will be hosting a committee evening where we will order pizza from a local pizzeria for each council to enjoy. During the committee evening, there will be fun activities in the councils that the delegates can participate in. Consumption of alcohol is not permitted at this event.

MUNNY Official Party:

On Saturday, 24th of January, from 19:00 to 00:00, in Nyborg Gymnasium's Foodcamp, the official party will take place, and all participants of MUNNY 2026 are welcome.
