

Students, TO USE THIS DOCUMENT, you MUST make a copy for yourself:

- Google users must be logged into their Google email account, go to File>Make a Copy, and save it to YOUR Drive or download it as a Microsoft Word document.

3.Q3 Scenarios

Student Name:

Date:

Here is a list of some AI-generated scenarios and tips from MagicSchoolAI for 6th grade level students about Social Media.

Scenario 1: Friend Requests from Strangers

Imagine you receive a friend request from someone you don't know. They have a cool profile picture and seem to like the same things you do. What should you do?

Tips:

- Always be cautious about accepting friend requests from strangers.
- Check if you have any mutual friends and ask them if they know this person.
- Remember, people online may not always be who they say they are.
- If you're unsure, it's best to ignore or decline the request.

Scenario 2: Sharing Personal Information

Your favorite online game asks for your home address to send you a prize. Should you provide this information?

Tips:

- Never share personal information like your address, phone number, or school name online.
- Ask a parent or trusted adult before sharing any personal details.
- Be aware that some requests for information might be scams.

Scenario 3: Cyberbullying

You notice that someone in your class is posting mean comments about another student on social media. What's the right thing to do?

Tips:

- Don't participate in or encourage bullying behavior.
- Stand up for others by reporting the bullying to a trusted adult or teacher.
- Use the platform's reporting tools to flag inappropriate content.
- Remember, what you post online can have real-life consequences.

Scenario 4: Time Management

You find yourself spending hours scrolling through social media and it's affecting your homework time. How can you balance your online and offline life?

Tips:

- Set a daily time limit for social media use.
- Use apps or phone settings to track and limit your screen time.
- Create a schedule that includes time for homework, hobbies, and face-to-face interactions with friends and family.
- Remember that there's a whole world beyond your screen!

Scenario 5: Sharing Photos and Videos

You want to post a funny video of your friend, but you're not sure if they'd be okay with it. What should you do?

Tips:

- Always ask for permission before posting photos or videos of others.
- Think about how you would feel if someone posted a picture or video of you without asking.
- Remember that once something is online, it can be hard to completely remove it.

Except as noted, content on this site is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License. Commercial use requests should contact: executivedirector@remc.org.