Today Mr. Tadao walked around the gardens with me. He said he needed the fresh air, but I think he got annoyed during his meeting with my brothers last night. I heard them talking about Mr. Tadao this morning, and they seemed annoyed too, and called him some words that I don't know the meaning of, but that Mr. Tadao said were rude. Mr. Tadao really liked the camellias, and Susu wasn't with us so she wasn't able to chew on them. When we were walking, he saw a little bird on one of the trees. I don't know how he was able to, because it was really small, and even with him pointing it out it still took me a while to see it. It was really pretty. I'd seen little birds before, outside my window, but I liked looking at it with Mr. Tadao. I wonder if there are lots of birds where he's from. Chiyo liked looking at birds, she even had a little journal she drew them in. I think she would have liked this bird, it was yellow and had a pretty song.

Mr. Tadao says he'll have to leave soon. I don't want him to go, because I've had a lot of fun with him. I know he probably wants to though, my brother's have been annoying him. If I could leave, I would too. Plus, my brothers seem angrier more often, so I'd have to avoid them anyway. Mr. Tadao said he will only be here for another two days, so I have to make the most of it.
