

1. Decide which of the adjectives below can be used to describe the following components of film. Which adjectives do you think are positive and which are negative? Can you think of other adjectives you could use to describe these elements of a movie?

beautiful	strong	predictable	smart	stunning far-fetched	powerful	confusing	suspenseful	realistic haunting	hilarious	original	dull	complex cast	script	special effects performance	score	cinematography

plot	costumes	characters

2. Writing Assignment: Write a two-paragraph composition on the following topic:

Think of a film you have recently watched. Summarize the plot and evaluate it by examining the movie's strong points and/or weak points (Alternatively, teachers can assign a specific film to watch for homework or to watch as a class)