Hello,
I am _____. I am helping with a project called “The Stories that Unite Us” (www.storiesunite.com). As part of this project, I am looking for people who would like to participate in a podcast style interview.

The primary goal of this project is to share personal stories in an effort to break down stereotypes and teach about cultural awareness. Each podcast episode will focus on one particular topic and be roughly 4-6 minutes long. The final episodes will be uploaded to a website for teachers to use. The main themes are: Families and Communities; Science and Technology; Contemporary Life; Global Challenges; Personal and public Identities. Please look at these detailed Subtopics and Example Interview Questions and think about what topic interests you.

In order to post your interview on a public website, please fill out this Video Permission Release Form and bring to your interview. (Anyone under 18 needs a parental signature.)

My goal in emailing you is to offer the chance to be an interviewee on one of these topics. Please let me know if you would like to participate, what are some dates you are available and what topics are of interest to you. Thank you!

Sincerely,
