Community Centres

Community centres, community centres, or community halls are public locations where members of a community tend to gather for group activities, social support, public information, and other purposes. They may sometimes be open for the whole community or for a specialised group within the greater community.

Community centres are available for each area and are a useful and easy access source for newcomers. This is where you can find information for events in your community and meet more people.

Opening time varies for different locations so you can look at it in more detail as you search it up.
