

Jan2019

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN PUBLIC LIFE AND THE GLOBAL COMMUNITY

Responsibilities

- Sustain the Association's focus on the context of religious education in public life and the global community, especially as that focus can be expressed through
 - Contributing in creative ways to the growth and advancement of the Association
 - Assisting in articulating and communicating our identity and vision for a broad audience
- Promote connections and insights at the border of scholarship and practice
- Participate in the planning of events and initiatives relating Religious Education in Public Life and the Global Community to the Annual Meeting theme
- Start and support working groups related to religious education in public life and the global community, including religion in schools
- Liaison with media and local organizations to promote and/or inform of annual meeting (standing committee on RE in Faith Communities will liaison with local faith communities)
- Increase multi-religious representation and involvement in REA; work with Networking Coordinator to connect with religious formation organizations in non-Christian traditions.
- Cultivate and attend to connections with our international members and colleagues (e.g., help elaborate annual meeting theme for international audience)
- Meet during the Annual Meeting and at other times during the year, as needed, via web conference in order to fulfill the responsibilities described above.