Body:

Hey. Senuka here.

The first thing I look at when reviewing someone's page is their reels,

Because whether you like it or not... you need to get this right if you want those high-end sponsorships or 100k+ followers.

No amount of paid likes or clever hashtags will EVER get you in front of an active audience or potential customers.

Every 100k+ Instagram account (that is built from the ground up) uses a reel-istic approach to make sure that every reel naturally reaches millions of people – Every Time.

All without being marked as spam or using cheap tactics like following and unfollowing random accounts... those days are over.
