Picoh : Is the heating on? I'm not feeling particularly warm. I wonder how cold it will be.

Picoh : Mice of those are insulated, but the rest of me is rather exposed at the batteries fully charged.

Picoh : Time since launch zero.

Picoh : Have you checked everything is working. This aircraft seems to be held together with tape?

Any idea how cold it will be? At 30,000 meters?

My vertical velocity is. - minus Zero 2 meters/second.

Is the heating on? I'm not feeling particularly warm. My course is 164.1 degrees
