

Learning Objectives and Outcomes

- Define the concepts of environment, eco-system, environmental degradation, and climate change
- Examine various factors of environmental degradation and climate change in Bangladesh and identify the major environmental problems of Bangladesh.
- Investigate the impact of climate change and what would be the way out for development.
- Know about international initiatives for the sustainable environment as well as government initiatives for environmental protection and Development in Bangladesh