

The Best Pinkie Clop Evar

by rawrkarirawr

Once upon a time in a land far far away there was a pony and that pony was in space and that pony was pinkie pie. Pinkie pie decided that it would be a good idea to go into space because space is fun and she likes fun very much. What she wasn't aware of was the RAGING FERVOUR that was about to take place in her nether regions. So pinkie Pie was wandering around in space looking for something to do when suddenly the space core from portal came around and was like

"SPPPPPPPAAAAAAAACCCCEEE" and pinkie pie did not know what to do because she was in space and she knew but she did not know if this creature was fun so rather than find out if he was fun she decided to do the roundhouse kick that jackie chan did at the end of rush hour 2 to the space core. Suddenly there was a burning in her nether lips and she was like

"HUHHHH UH UH UH UUUUUHHHH"

THATS WHEN IT HAPPENED. Lady glue erupted from her vagina and formed a river which she then decided to swim in because a no space river is worse than none. When she was swimming she didn't know where she was going so instead she became the first shooting star and many a pony wished upon her, but little did they know that they were actually wishing upon pinkie and her wonder fountain. Little did pinkie know, but she was actually harvesting these wishes in her mane which is why she is so bright and wonderful. Eventually pinkie pie got bored and zoom zoom straight to the moon and then span around a little and flew into the earth so that she could go visit her friends but actually all of them were dead because of how she crashed into the earth and this made her sad. Pinkie was so sad like the saddest ive ever seen ever. She had like tears forming and she was covered in boo hoo. Then she turned into evil pinkie pie and all the wishes poofed out from her mane and all of her friends were alive again because those wishes made the world a better place. Her friends were alive and they were still happy.

"Hey I'm HAPPY AGAIN" pinkie said aloud as she drank from her cup

THATS WHEN IT HAPPENED. Rather than let her augmented lady parts get the best of her, she aimed it right at your computer monitor and now it is destroyed and letting in ponies of all sort into your home and it looked a little something like this but then i pushed them all back in there and told them that their world was better and it was so. Once the opportunity was given to pinkie pie she decided to go to a doctor and see whats up with all this ladyfunk. She went to the doctor and the doctor told her to beware the compass and then she exploded into sunshine but pinkie didnt know what to make of this so instead she went to twilights house to see whats up and twilight was like

"Oh hello pinkie pie, how can I- HRMP"

THATS WHEN IT HAPPENED. Buckets and buckets of lady syrup went flying down twilight's throat and pinkie savored every moment of it while smiling really big. Rainbow dash then flew in through the window and began just chugging down all dat jizz like a jackass because she's into that sort of thing. Once pinkie was done with all that rainbow dash flew away again because she wanted to be with the wonderbolts and these were not them. Pinkie was sad about all of the problems that she was causing to her friends so she decided to tounge kiss twilight real deep and then say and then her hair poofed back down into her second form. She decided that she needed to go somewhere else that was not space or ponyville or my computer monitor because that would be bad juju and has not worked out well, so instead she decied to try to make her way to east hoofington, but at this point she was real sad and decided that it would just be better if she would die but she did not want to die. She was conflicted. Girls got problems IMO. So pinkie decided that rather than go anywhere that she would just go in a direction and keep going and thats what she did until she found an ocean but then she didnt know what to do because she couldnt swim that good, but she tried anyway until she got real tired and stood on a log. She didn't know where to go so she decided to look at her map and think of maybe going north. She looked at the north, west, south, east..... WAIT.

"Goodbye everypony, I just dont..... belong here"

THATS WHEN IT HAPPENED. She looked at the compass and she began to spew her VILE EXCRETIONS into the ocean but this time she was like NOPE and closed her vaginal lips around herself and then she began to inflate like a balloon because of all of the jizz that she was retaining within her everything which was very uncomfortable but then she looked at herself and went and then exploded and made equestria a better place.

"MMMMMM JUICY"

THE END?
