

Paragraph (4)

Comparison between two cities

I have lived in San Diego, California for four years. And I have been living in Beaverton, Oregon for five years. San Diego is bigger and more crowded and also noisier than Beaverton. Beaverton has less traffic than San Diego. And also less sun. California has more universities than Oregon. California has more beautiful beaches than Oregon. California receives more visitors than Oregon. Oregon is more natural and rainier than California. In California gasoline is more expensive than Oregon. And also California has Universal Studios Hollywood and Disneyland and Oregon not.

Paragraph (5)

I'm going to talk about my brother. I have one brother and no sister. His name is Saud. He is older than me. Sometimes I feel like he is younger than me. We are like Tom and Jerry at home. He is twenty eight years old. Saud's hobby is hiking. His last name is like my last name. We live with our father. He makes our house noisy and messy. I think that is enough. I can't say more things. Don't get things right. He is a good person LOL but he is messy and I hate that. I have to clean after him all the time, especially when he goes to the kitchen.

Thank you for sharing Sarood. My sister is much messier than me, and we would not do well living together in the same house. When I come to visit her house, it is always messy. I am glad we do not live together.

Paragraph (3)

My favorite place

Home is the coziest place ever. I feel comfortable there and like I can be myself and I feel I'm safe. I like every corner of the house. I like my bedroom, kitchen, and Living room. And I like the front yard. We have breakfast and lunch there on sunday. And this happens in spring and summer, not in winter. I like my bedroom because I sleep there and I do my skincare. I like the kitchen because I cook there. And I spend most of my time in the Living room and kitchen. There are three TVs in the house and there is one of them in the living room. I have a fridge in my bedroom and there is healthy food in it. I am Trying to diet and I hope I succeed this time and lose weight.

Great paragraph. A couple of small things: we do not capitalize the names of rooms in English, and we do capitalize the days of the week.

One more thing - we will be learning more about this next week. We don't say "the coziest ___ than." You can say:

- 1) Home is the coziest place ever. OR Home is the coziest place on earth. Superlative
- 2) Home is cozier than anywhere else. OR Home is cozier than everywhere else. Comparative

Paragraph (2)

My favorite meals

I like many kinds of food. I like (cheeseburger+french fries) I like (pizza) and (spaghetti) and I like a kind of food called (Dolma) in Arabic and (eprakh) in kurdish. ok I don't wanna talk about it. Because it is difficult to talk about it. and it is hard to cook it. I will skip. and talk about (spaghetti) I cook it every week. and sometimes two times a week. Because it is easy to cook and delicious. The mixture contains. Olive oil + chopped onion + chopped green pepper + mincemeat + tomato sauce + black pepper + I like spicy food so I put red pepper too. By the way, my food is separate from my father's because he doesn't like spicy food. So we don't eat the same thing. We like a (salmon) I cook it three times a week. and this is the only thing I don't cook separately.

Sarood! It is SO difficult to write in a second language well enough to tell jokes and make people laugh, but that is what you have done! Your writing is so good. When you started talking about dolmas and then told me you are going to skip it because it is too hard to write about and hard to cook, I laughed out loud. I do know what dolmas are and I enjoy them! I am so excited to read more of your writing.

Great writing. My only correction is that you do not need parentheses () around your examples. I like cheeseburger+french fries, I like pizza and spaghetti, and I like a kind of food called Dolma in Arabic and eprakh in kurdish.

paragraph (1)

What kind of person I am

My name is sarood I Am 25 years old .I Am Kurdish From Iraq .I came to United state in 2014 . My mom passed away in 2000 when I was 3 Years old . And my brother, he was 8 years old. I live with my parents with my father and brother and we came to America together . What kind of person I am. All people see themselves as good and I Am one of them. I am a Caregiver. I take care of my Father. The trait I hate of myself is Shy. And that makes me Uncomfortable with people. I always wake up around 6 am. And the first thing I do when I wake up is see my phone. I got out of bed and make bed .Then I go to the bathroom.I Brush my teeth three times a day and wash my face. And then I start preparing breakfast . Then I eat breakfast . Then I do the dishes . and Do laundry. I do dishes three times a day. and do laundry every day. and finish all my housework. and take my father to his appointment if he has an appointment. Call a pharmacy for RX. once a month. and pick up his medication from the pharmacy. More than three times. and I take a shower everyday. and eat dinner three or four times haha. I sleep around 11 Pm except on weekends. I sleep late twice a week.

Hi Sarood, great work. Thank you for writing so much about yourself. You sound like a very kind person, and like you are a big help to your father.
