

Submission Preparation Checklist

As part of the submission process, authors are required to check off their submission's compliance with all of the following items, and submissions may be returned to authors that do not adhere to these guidelines.

- I can confirm that this manuscript has not been submitted elsewhere or under review with another journal. If it is discovered that the manuscript has already been submitted or is being reviewed by another journal, I accept Thammasat Review's decision to reject this paper and will not be able to submit anything else to this journal going forward.
- This article is original contributions and has not been published in any academic proceedings, books, journal or elsewhere.
- The author's name that appears in the article must be a participant in the actual work.
- The submission file is in OpenOffice, Microsoft Word, RTF, or WordPerfect document file format.
- Academic plagiarism is prohibited. In case the author(s) have used the work and/or words of others, respective sources should be appropriately cited or quoted.
- In case of the manuscript is related to animals, volunteers or human participants, data collection operations must obtain consent or permitted from the simple at all time. The author(s) should ensure the manuscripts were performed in compliance with relevant laws and under international standards of the protection of human subjects.
- If submitting to a peer-reviewed section of the journal, the instructions in Ensuring a Blind Review have been followed.
- The author(s) must consent to transfer the copyright to the journal before publication. In addition, the published paper must not be published elsewhere after being published in the journal.