B. Establishing Lesson Purpose1. Lesson Purpose*Activity 2: SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

- a. The teacher will explain to the learners that they will be participating in a fun activity where they must spot the differences in two similar pictures of the Sinukwan Festival.
- b. Two pictures will be shown to learners side by side or one after the other.
- c. Identify and circle or list the differences between the two pictures.
- d. The teacher will encourage the learners to observe and notice details.

Key Answer:

	2. Unlocking Content Vocabulary ARRANGING JUMBLED LETTERS The teacher will post/present scrambled letters on the board. Right after the teacher explains their meaning, the learners will arrange the letters to form a word. Identify the term being defined in each number. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ECSTUOM – refers to the clothing worn by a dancer when performing before an audience. It is a visual representation of the dance's theme, mood, and the era it was created in. 2. NPERAFOMCER- an act of staging or presenting a dance, play, concert, or other form of entertainment. 	Answer key: 1. COSTUME 2. PERFORMANCE The teacher will explain the importance of the different art forms to attain the lesson purpose of having a creative work.
C. Developing and Deepening Understanding	SUB-TOPIC: Unique local processes and practices used to produce the costumes, decorations, music, and dance performances that show the Kapampangan heritage 1. Explication The Sinukwan Festival is an important representation of Pampanga's rich cultural heritage and tradition. It embodies the essence of Kapampangan identity through its music, dance, costumes, and storytelling, serving as a celebration of their roots and a reminder of the importance of preserving their cultural legacy. Traditional Kapampangan Music and Dance The well-known Kapampangan song "Atin Cu Pung Singsing" sets the tone for the Sinukwan Festival. It is a traditional piece from the Kapampangan people that has been handed down through the ages. This song is an important aspect of the festivities, setting the tone for the high-energy dance performances. The festival's main attraction is the street dance competition, with contestants expressing their Kapampangan identity via dynamic and culturally infused choreography. Beyond the movements, the celebration features lively street decorations that reveal symbols of Kapampangan culture.	The teacher will discuss unique local processes and practices used to produce the costumes, decorations, music, and dance performances that show the Kapampangan heritage.

	Costume and Prop Design for the Sinukwan Festival The dancers wear brightly colored headdresses (large crowns) with bright, dazzling accessories and costume designs reflecting the region’s rich tapestry, enhancing the visual spectacle. Storytelling and oral traditions in the Sinukwan Festival The Sinukwan Festival outlines its roots in the Kapampangan god of ancient mythology, Aring Sinukwan, embodying the region’s rich cultural heritage. Aring Sinukwan was the god of agriculture, fertility, and singing. The event was a time for people to gather, celebrate the harvest, and express gratitude to Sinukwan for his favors. The rhythmic dances and chants during the festival pay tribute to the bountiful harvests and the land’s fertility, keeping the community’s ties to their land and traditions fiercely alive. By showcasing the cultural heritage through various activities such as street dancing, parades, and cultural shows, the Sinukwan festival not only fosters a sense of unity and pride among the Kapampangan people but it also extends the significance beyond cultural celebration. It serves as a stand for preserving and promoting Kapampangan identity, encourages social interaction, strengthens the local economy, and attracts visitors from around the world, all of which help to preserve and spread Kapampangan culture. on a global scale. DAY 2 2. Lesson Activity Activity 3: MY CULTURE, MY PRIDE!: Practical workshops on creating costumes, props, music, and dance routines In this activity, learners will have the opportunity to demonstrate their comprehension of the Sinukwan Festival and their cultural identity. Learners will integrate creative components to form a unified and significant portrayal of Kapampangan heritage. The class is divided into small groups. The group will be given ample time to prepare.	The activity is a reflection of Kapampangan’s cultural identity. The teacher is highly encouraged to select and present creative works within their locality. The teacher will explain the given task for each group in preparation for the Sinukwan Festival presentation. The teacher will assign a leader for each group.

Objective: Produce a creative work that shows their culture using the unique local processes and practices from the art forms showcased during the Sinukwan Festival. Materials:

- a. Sinukwan Festival Music
- b. Portable/Bluetooth speaker
- c. Pen
- d. Worksheet
- e. Any available local (natural and synthetic) materials to create headdresses and/or celebration props.

Instructions:

1. In preparation for the upcoming unified performance, the class will be divided into three groups.
2. The teacher will group the learners according to their strengths and skills.
3. Each group is given a task to follow:

Group 1: Music and Dance

- Learn the dance steps from the Sinukwan Festival, as seen in the street dance competition.
- Use the recorded version of "Atin Cu Pung Singsing" as music for the dance performance.

Group 2: Headdress and props

- Make headdresses or celebration props out of materials that are easy to find in your area.
- The dancers will wear headdresses and/or use props.

Group 3: Storytelling

- Write a brief narrative about the importance of the Sinukwan Festival and Kapampangan's cultural identity.
- Before the performance, one student may read this aloud.

B. Below is the assessment guide to be used in Week 8:

The teacher is highly encouraged to select and present creative works within their locality. The teacher will facilitate and check the learner's progress.

The teacher is encouraged to revise the activity as needed.

Weeks 6 and 7 will be conceptualization and practice. Week 8 is performance day.
