Subject:	Web designers are freaking out... AI just killed their business
Email:	For years, web designers and agencies have been charging thousands for websites that take weeks to build... They convinced business owners that they had no choice but to pay... But now... everything has changed. A new AI breakthrough has just killed web design forever... For the first time ever... anyone—without coding, without experience—can launch a fully automated website agency that runs on 100% autopilot... And it's so insanely powerful that people who already know about it are making thousands of dollars per week with just a few clicks. With LocalGenie AI, you don't need: • Developers, designers, or SEO experts—AI does all the work • Any selling skills—AI finds, attracts, and sells to business owners for you • Any experience—just log in, click a button, and watch AI build and sell websites automatically The best part? You keep 100% of the profits—charging businesses $997+ per website while AI does everything for you. But there's a catch... Once this reaches a certain number of users, the doors will shut down... And if you miss out now... someone else will take your spot. Get instant access before it's too late: [Get LocalGenie AI Now]

Subject:	Your AI website agency runs 24/7... even while you sleep
Email:	Imagine waking up every morning to multiple $997+ payments in your account... Not because you worked all night... Not because you ran ads... Not because you chased clients... But because AI did all the work for you while you slept.

	That's exactly what LocalGenie AI does. • It builds, optimizes, and brands stunning local business websites—with just one click • It automatically finds business owners who are desperate for a website • It closes the sale and delivers the website for you And you? You just sit back and watch the payments roll in. It's not a website builder... it's a fully automated money-making machine... And for the first time ever, you can own it. But there's one thing you need to know... This won't be available forever. Once the first wave of users gets in, the doors will close. Don't miss your chance. [Get LocalGenie AI Now]
