

SOUNDTRACK OF LIBERATION

Purpose

By creating a playlist of songs related to liberation movements around the world, you'll explore how music can reflect their struggles and ideologies.

Process

1. Conduct research online to find different songs about liberation or resistance. These could be historical or contemporary.
2. Choose a title for your playlist of songs about liberation. It should reflect a unifying theme in the songs.

3. Add the cover art for your playlist below. It should reflect the theme. You can use an image you find online or draw one yourself.

4. Select five songs that relate to specific liberation strategies and ideologies in various parts of the world. Include an excerpt from the lyrics of each song and an explanation that connects the song to course content.

SOUNDTRACK OF LIBERATION

| Song title and artist | Excerpt from lyrics | How does the song relate to strategies and ideologies of liberation movements? (Include specific examples.) |
|-----------------------|---------------------|---|
|                       |                     |   |
|                       |                     |   |
|                       |                     |   |
|                       |                     |   |
|                       |                     |   |