

Sudipta Bhaumik

Lead- Technology and Presales, Optical Networking Business, STL, India
Vice Chairman- ITU-T Study Group 15 and Working Party 2/15

Sudipta Bhaumik has been in the telecommunication field for over 25 years and engaged in research into quality, reliability, and application issues of optical fibre and cable. He is one of the architects of quality, process, and application engineering of STLs state-of-the-art optical fibre and cable manufacturing plants. He is an active expert member in telecom standard development organizations like ITU-T, IEC, BIS, TEC, TIA and serving as Vice Chair of ITU-T Study Group 15, Working Party 2 of SG15, Project Leader of IEC SC86A (Optical Fibre and Cable) and Liaison officer of IEC TC 86 (Fibre Optics).

Sudipta is one of the founder members and master trainers of STL Academy. He is one of the Guinness World Record holders to achieve the most viewers of a live telecommunication lesson. He has published over 40 technical papers and several patents and editor of NINE international standards. He was the first Indian to receive prestigious IEC 1906 award from IEC TC86 Fibre Optics. He is two times recipient of Urbain .J.H Malo medal for most meritorious technical paper in WAI convention.