Article type: Letter to the editor, technical note, reflection article, original article or review article.

Title must be clear and descriptive, in both Spanish and English, in Times New Roman 12, bold font, left aligned, no end point, with a maximum of 20 words. Abbreviations and acronyms should be avoided

Título claro y descriptivo, tanto en español como en inglés, en letra Times New Roman 12, negrita, alineado a la izquierda, sin punto final, con un máximo de 20 palabras. Se deben evitar abreviaturas y siglas

Authors' contribution

The assignment of authorship roles (conceptualization, data curation, formal analysis, funding acquisition, investigation, methodology, project administration, software, resources, supervision, validation, visualization, writing – original draft, and writing – review & editing), will be carried out according to the specified order, assigning each author their corresponding role and excluding roles that are not relevant in each case. For more details, please refer to https://credit.niso.org/. The information in this section should be structured as exemplified below for a four-author article:

Nilia de la Paz: conceptualization, formal analysis, funding acquisition, project administration, writing - original draft, and writing - review & editing. Mirna Fernández: conceptualization, data curation, formal analysis, methodology, supervision, writing - original draft, and writing - review & editing. Jarol A. Hernández: formal analysis, investigation, writing - original draft, and writing - review & editing. Mario A. García: data curation, formal analysis, investigation, software, validation, visualization, writing - original draft, and writing - review & editing.

CC BY NC SA