Name
Date
Study status for the current month	Example of contents (1) Course Completion Status Enter the status of enrollment in major courses, Inter-Graduate School courses, or special education programs, as well as experience and knowledge gained from these courses. (2) Research activities Enter the progress of activities closely related to the research, such as paper survey, experiments, field research, interviews, conference presentations, symposia, writing papers, etc. (3) Social activities related to information science/AI, or SDGs Enter efforts such as enrollment in courses or special education programs related to the adopted fields ("Information science/AI" or "SDGs"), participation in symposiums and seminars, and activities in organizations on and off-campus. (4) Others Notes. (1) When entering the details of various activities in your study status, do not simply list facts such as "I am taking XXX courses" or "I have presented at XXX conferences," etc., but rather describe what you are specifically doing, what you are getting out of these activities, and how you will apply them to your research and future career path. Provide details about how you will be involved in the project. (2) If your extracurricular activities, such as hobby activities or part-time jobs, have provided you with the knowledge that may suggest the social implementation of your research activities, etc., please describe the details. (3) If the word count is so minimal that it is difficult to determine the student's learning status, we may ask you to revise and resubmit the report.
