Best Execution Policy

The concept of best execution is the act of obtaining a combination of price and commission (if any) in a transaction that is most favorable to the client under prevailing market conditions.

When executing trades on behalf of clients, the traders have a duty to select brokers, dealers, or banks that will enable the firm to obtain best execution for our clients and to comply with any applicable legal requirements. Consequently, the trader must, when executing trades, exercise due care, skill, judgement and consideration for execution criteria (as detailed below) when handling client order.
