

Target market.

Beginners looking to trade with forex, but don't know where to start. They don't want to spend time analysing charts, learning about technical analysis and reading all the books about how to trade. These are busy types of people who work normal 9-5 jobs and time is seen as a limited factor for them. They want a hands off approach to create wealth without sacrificing their time. Otherwise they would just go out and work overtime.

Facebook Ad 1:

Are you a dedicated trader seeking to generate an extra income alongside your 9-5 job?

Do you hate the idea of spending all your time analysing complex charts or learning technical analysis?

The truth is to actually profit from forex trading, you don't need to do any of that stuff..

Time is indeed our most valuable commodity, and we recognize that you may not have much of it.

That's why at Alchemist, we've developed a proven system that automatically executes trades on your behalf.

Our system harnesses the power of AI, allowing you to avoid lifting a finger.

In other words, you can simply sit back, relax, and watch it expertly manage your trades.

So whether you're busy with your day job or spending time with your family..

You can start to begin accumulating wealth passively.

Oh and by the way,

This is the same system that has consistently delivered positive returns over the last 3 years since its launch.

Hey brother, how's it going?

I just stumbled across your sponsored ad post for your AI trading system, and noticed a way you get more out of your ROAS through a couple of tweaks.

Instead of telling you how, I just thought it would be easier to write you a separate ad.
