

Name: Wolfy

Gender: Female

Pronouns: She/her

Species: Arctic winged wolf

Shoulder height: 2.4ft(0.73m)

Length: 4ft(1.21m)

Weight: 100lbs(45.4kg)

Wingspan: 5ft(1.5m)

Personalities: Quiet, slightly aggressive, protective, and brave

Special ability: Ice breath

A breakdown of the ability

Ice breath: A ranged weapon where Wolfy shoots out freezing death breath. Weaker than an Ice dragon's ice breath but powerful enough to extinguish small flames and inflict decent damage onto the opponent with piercing pain, which feels like being stabbed multiple times.

Energy drain: moderate

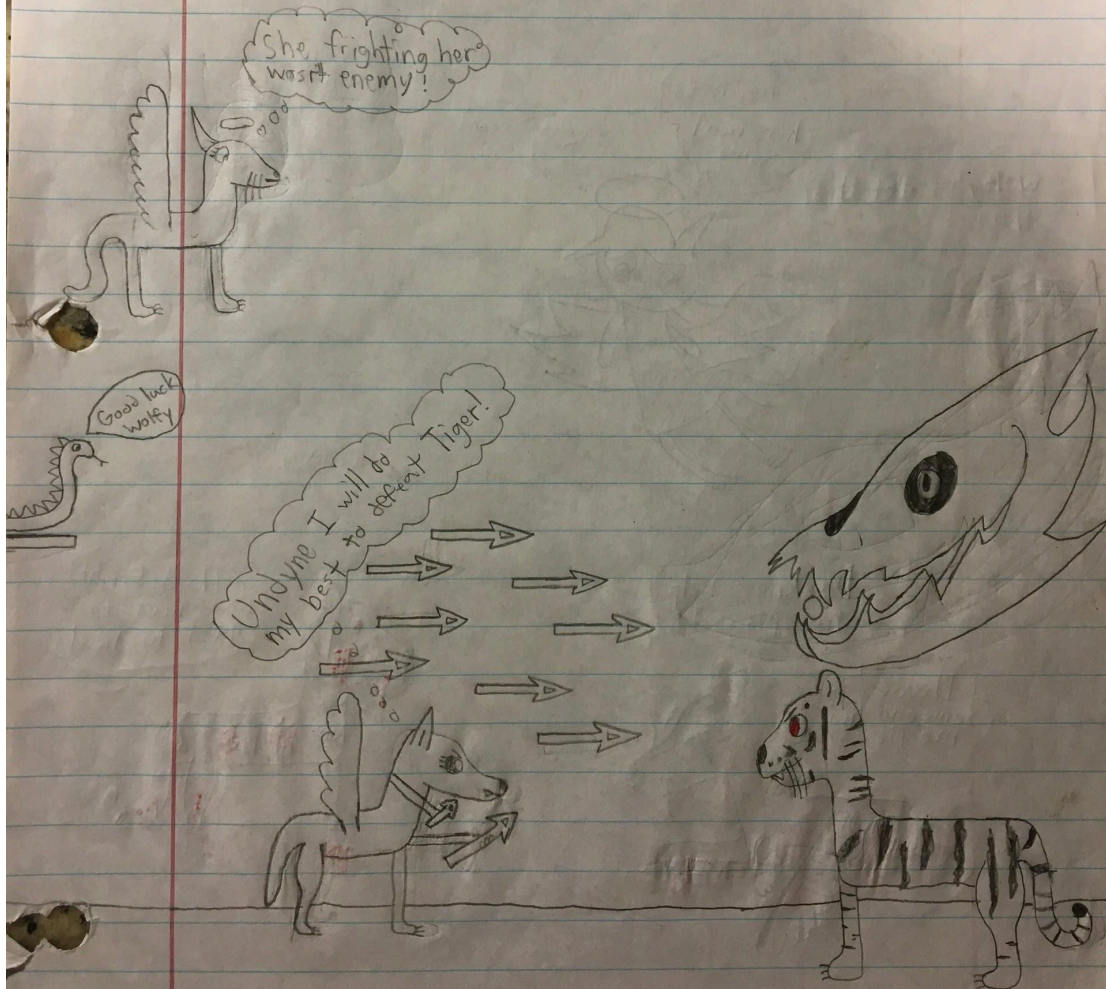

Fun fact/history about Wolfy

She was the very first OC I ever created. When I was really young, I simply daydreamed about this character going on all sorts of adventures and fighting with her nemesis, Tiger. I initially imagined her being an entirely gray male wolf with white wings before changing Wolfy's gender to a female and into a winged arctic wolf, then officially drew her in 2016. She was also a BIG Mary Sue and had a foolish weakness; if her wings were damaged, her power/strength just dropped DRASTICALLY. Oh god, what was I thinking-

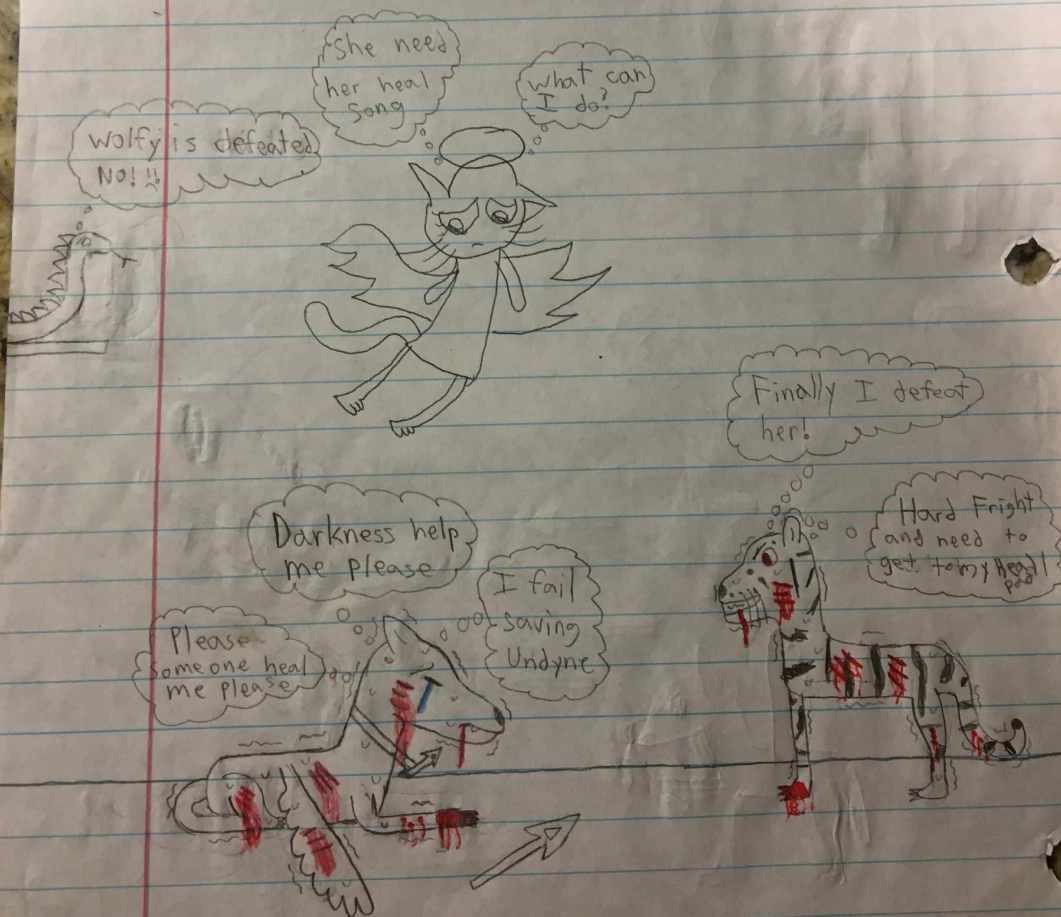

Wolfy's first-ever appearances(Warning: Old drawings which are very bad and cringe. Also, bad grammar too)

! GORE WARNING ON THE 2ND DRAWING !

Wolfy v.s. Tiger

Tiger defeated Wolfy!

Fang the snake and Darkness the angel panther belong to 2 friends of mine. One of them is not with me anymore, but my close friend, Soup, was the one who drew Darkness on the second drawing.

Also, the gaster blaster looks so good because I saw a picture of it on the internet and copied it. I didn't trace it, but I could somehow replicate it on paper. Heck, I didn't even know tracing was a thing!

Oh, I also did a redraw of that first drawing around August 2021
