John Crestani, an internet millionaire, recently went over how you can quickly make money online using a simple 3-step system that they refuse to speak about in the media, or in schools.

- How there are tens of thousands of companies, including Amazon, Walmart, Target, Uber, and many more, that will pay you money to post their links online. This information needs to be shared with citizens who don't have jobs.
- These companies (such as Amazon, Walmart, Target, and more) put no cap on how much money they will pay you. It makes no sense that people interested in working for these companies are not made aware of this opportunity.
- The companies John recommends will pay you via a mailed check, direct deposit to your bank account, or through PayPal.
- Anyone can join, its 100% free, and you can start earning money in under a week. Why is the media not sharing these opportunities with us?!
- John recently did a training (the recording of it is online, the link is below) on exactly how he and his students make millions of dollars doing this
- He shows the step-by-step process to quickly make money online on this training, by using his 3 step system of People > Product > Place.
- This recording of the training will likely be taken down soon, so if the page is still up, then I suggest you register and watch through the training immediately.

You can register for the training by clicking on this link and watching the training

A few suggestions before watching the training:

1. Watch it on a laptop or desktop computer
2. It is long, about an hour, so be prepared to sit for a while <https://www.digistore24.com/redir/300124/JohnCrestani/?ds24tr=nextdoormessage1>.
3. Come prepared with a notepad and a pen, he goes fast.
4. He makes an offer to go into a deeper training program with him at the end. While it's not necessary to do this to earn money, I would highly recommend it.

Here are some of the messages Johns students sent him, the method he teaches really works

These are my clickbank sales over the last six weeks. I'm so thrilled. I haven't been able to put as much time in over the last few weeks, but even so, the sales are trickling in 😊

And I'm confident the trickle will become a stream, and the stream a river ... and so on.

As far as I'm concerned, Internet Jetset is the best program I've come across so far. The value for money far exceeds a lot of other training programs. Thanks John ❤️ Ryan Dinnebeil I'm sitting behind a desk right now at a job I love because of John. Had I not met him I'd be at my old job I hated making less money and still hating life. When you say there are few success stories in this field you are dead wrong.

Hey everyone I'm new to the internet jet set. Ive been in for a bit now i just haven't posted anything though. Ive been grinding for the past few months as a new affiliate it seems everything I've been doing hasn't been sticking...I remember when i experimented with $2500 in paid traffic! I did make some sales but not even enough to cover my investment. This is when i know i needed to find something to figure out why i wasn't converting sales. Trust me I've looked all over the... How I went from ZERO to + $3k day in 2 WEEKS!!!!

Hello everyone, two weeks ago I've started my paid traffic and Dropshipping journey. The 20/09 I paid for the first monthly fee for shopify.

I had promised myself that this time I would focus on only one thing and not try every 3 days something new. This was my biggest problem!!

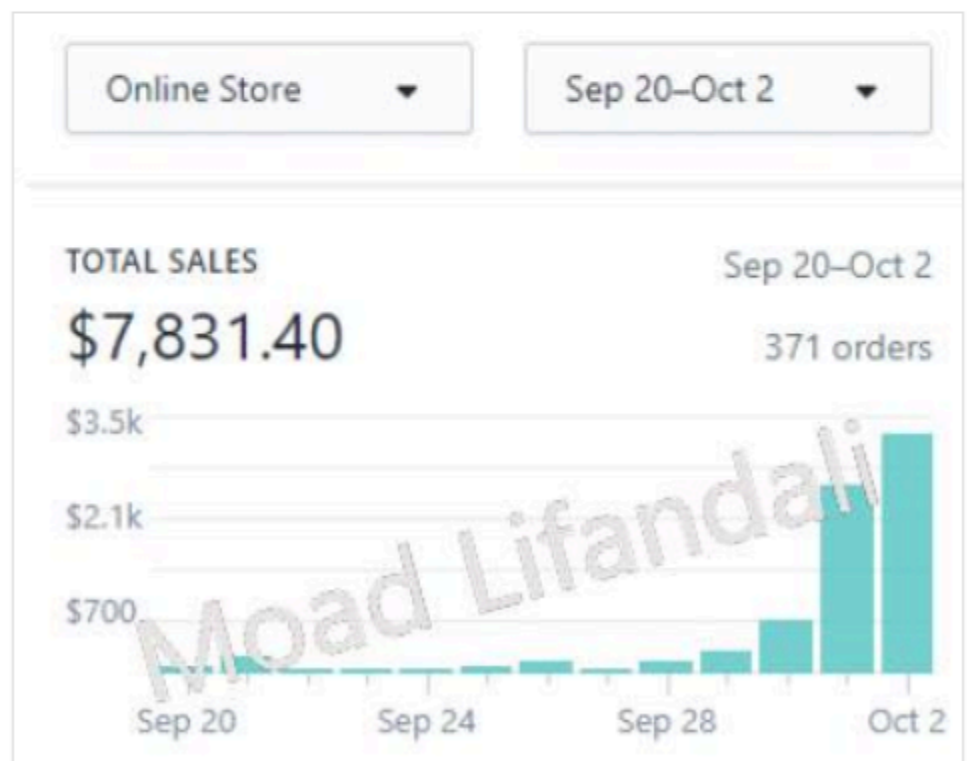

I've started testing every day 3-4 products with 6 adset each one. After testing +35 products and spending +2000$, I had finally found a good one.

It started to make some nice sales, I was around 500$/day but then I've decided to risk by putting higher budget.

Long story short, my product was the right one, I got +3000$ in 12h.

Things went so fast that I've discovered that my credit card had monthly limits! Now that I've understand how facebook works and ordered new credit card, I'm planning to killin it next months by achieving +xxxxxx/day revenue.

I'll keep you updated!

Not sure whether you're reading this or not but so far this is the best approach I've ever seen John. It's simple to do but walks you through everything as to not catch on anything like I've done so many times. Thank you. I posted last night. I have not checked to see the results but there was a ton of activity on my post. Excited for what the future holds.

You know it seems everytime John says something I find so much value in it....for instance there is no such thing as the golden egg all categories work and you can make a lot of money from them.. I been saying for years their are millionaires made in all areas of life, trash, insurance, commodities, manufacturing...guess I should have been listening to my own little voice huh. Well John saying it has made a believer of me...It seems I have spent way too much time looking for the golden egg to make a home run. I am currently reviewing the videos again and have not made it through all of them but going at a snails pace with determination is much better than following the shiny object syndrome and expecting results overnight. I guess I have rambled on too much but let me end by saying John I am a believer and follower of yours and can hardly wait for my success.

Hey Jetsetters!! I'm a very low key and conservative person. Although this success deserves credit and would like to share.

One Friday night in March I came across John Crestani ad, i was immediately intrigued with making money online. Be my own boss:). I have zero experience in online marketing, but I was desperate and was looking to make extra money to help support my family. 4 years ago we sold everything in Cali and moved to Puerto Rico after my husband got layoff work...

Today I received my first Check from Click Bank.

I mentioned before that I did a little tweak on a part of the JetSet course which is launch jacking.

I used free traffic, Facebook only, and didn't take it seriously but the idea was successful.... See more just hit $1,000,000 in YTD for those of you who wanted me to announce it 🎉 thank you for all of you who had patience with me and who've been there since the beginning.

it's insane, just 8 weeks ago I was at $0 and my family was struggling moving house to house cause we couldn't afford it anymore.

& now I am able to retire my mom, dad and my sister & put them in a home they deserve, with no stress, no claustrophobia in a small house, no starving, no more worrying about bills, and no more having to all sleep in one tiny room just to feel the AC.

now we can just live life. 😊💙

I'll always be here for guidance or help guys.

why?

because if roles were switched and I was the one who needed help or guidance, I'd want you to do the same for me.

god bless guys.

thank you so much Jan Vargas for being there from the start & thank you John Crestani, Ronnie Sandlin for improving my knowledge in AM 🙏

Ahsan Habib is 😊 feeling confident.

This has been the most lucrative day i've ever had with affiliate marketing. I have the most respects to my gurus John Crestani, Ronnie Sandlin, Jonathan Amaret for opening my eyes into all possibilities. I went from $200 per day, 1k per hour, and now hitting over 19k per day!!! Big accomplishments are in its leaps moving forward. Again, I cannot thank you all enough for building such a strong foundation here for everyone. I believe everyone can reach massive levels in t... See more

I've been laying low for awhile but some of my affiliate friends have been calling me out to do an update so here it is!
