

Hello friends! 🙌 Stemming from all of the recent hype around AI taking over tech & VC, I decided to use the magic of twitter to crowd-source an ultimate list of AI startups based here in SF. This is an open-source database, so feel free to add sections on any companies I missed or more information about listed companies using the comment feature.

I'm excited to circulate this around and grow it into a market map of all of the exciting things folks are building! If you have any more thoughts to share, please feel free to reach out on twitter at @wetarynitup
