

Subject: Maybe you would make the wrong decision anyway.

Text: When you make decisions about right or wrong, write down the pros and cons on a piece of paper and then consider your choice.

Don't overthink your whole life and complicate your problem, don't take your time with it.

Maybe you would make the wrong decision anyway.

Thinking for weeks doesn't benefit you at all.

You won't be 100% sure about your decisions.

Yet you still take your time to think if something is right or wrong.

Time is valuable.

You need to act fast.

SPEED.
