

PRESS KIT : BOUKI

(EN)

Bouki is a DJ and producer from Strasbourg. Having studied piano in an academic environment with a focus on jazz, he discovered electronic music through his early experiences in clubs, eventually developing a unique style perfectly suited for the dance floor. Drawing inspiration from Detroit, New York and Chicago, as well as influential house artists such as Moodymann, Ron Trent and Kerri Chandler, he explores 90s house, deep house, soulful house, breakbeat and acid textures with passion, delving into the roots of techno. In short, Bouki aims to showcase the influence of black music on stages, in clubs and on radios. As the founder of the GROOME collective and the OTTTERS Rec. label, he promotes house culture and supports artists from the electronic music scene.
